

2013 ROBERTA SYKES HARVARD CLUB SCHOLARSHIP

The Roberta Sykes Indigenous Foundation, in conjunction with the Harvard Club of Australia, is offering a fully funded scholarship for one Indigenous Australian to undertake a postgraduate degree at Harvard University commencing in August 2013.

Applications for the Roberta Sykes Harvard Club Scholarship close on 15 December 2012.

The value of the Scholarship is up to $60,000 per annum to be paid over the course of the scholar's study. The Scholarship covers university fees, travel costs and living expenses.

Eligibility

Applicants must:

- be of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent
- be accepted to the Harvard graduate school of their choice
- be able to demonstrate that their studies will be of benefit to their community upon their return to Australia.

Selection of successful applications will be based on:

- academic merit
- the applicant's past and future contributions to Indigenous communities and the wider community

Roberta Sykes – c. early 1980s

For more details about the Roberta Sykes Harvard Club Scholarship, please go to www.robertasykesfoundation.com.au. If you have any questions or wish to discuss your application, please call the Aurora Project on 02 94698100.

The Roberta Sykes
Indigenous Education Foundation