

CONCESSION INFORMATION

ELIGIBLE CONCESSION CARDS VE/FE GOVERNMENT-FUNDED COURSES ONLY

Students enrolling in Diploma or Advanced Diploma courses

The Victorian Government has recently re-introduced a tuition fee concession rate for young people enrolling in a Diploma or Advanced Diploma course in 2011. This concession rate only applies to students who are eligible for a government-funded place and are:

- enrolled in a Diploma or Advanced Diploma in 2011, and
- are less than 25 years of age on 1 January 2011

and are:

- a Commonwealth Health Care Cardholder, or the dependant children or dependant partner; or
- a Pensioner Concession cardholder, or the dependant children or dependant partner; or
- a Veterans' Gold cardholder and their dependant children or dependant partner

Students enrolling in Certificate Level Courses

These concession rates apply to students who are eligible for a government-funded place regardless of your age, and are:

- a Commonwealth Health Care Cardholder, or the dependant children or dependant partner; or
- a Pensioner Concession cardholder, or the dependant children or dependant partner; or
- a Veterans' Gold cardholder (does not include any dependants)

To claim your concession rate

You are eligible for a concession if you present a valid concession card:

- at the time of enrolment for your course
- at the time of adding additional units in a course (concession only applies to the additional units added)

PLEASE NOTE:

1. You ARE NOT eligible for a concession if you do not present your valid concession card at the time of enrolment.
2. All Commonwealth Health Care cardholders and Pensioner Concession cardholders and their dependant children or dependant partner are eligible.
3. The concession rate for Diploma and Advanced Diploma courses is charged per year and is the total maximum amount payable regardless of how many diplomas or advanced diplomas you are enrolled in for that year.
4. Concessions apply to Tuition fees, which are reduced to the minimum fees for that level of education. (Please see www.vu.edu.au/fees for more information).
5. Concessions do not apply to ancillary/material fees.