

Preview VU transcript

Making VU a New School of Thought is all about creating a dynamic and forward looking University that's uniquely attuned to the needs of industry and the community.

VU is a multi-sector university; it provides a number of learning pathways for students starting from further education up to vocational education and higher education.

Through VU's strong emphasis on work integrated learning it's given me the opportunity to gain hands on experience and helped me to get a job at the end when I graduate.

Victoria University emphasises research and research training that's innovative and useful for the community and industry.

The VU staff are ready to help you when you arrive in Melbourne and right through your degree.

Victoria University is actively engaged in Melbourne's western region and is working very closely with its surrounding communities.

VU has a successful alumni working in a huge number of industries in Australia and right around the world.