Coronavirus COVID-19

Mandatory Student Self-Assessment and Declaration.

Victoria University (VU) is continually monitoring the Coronavirus (COVID-19) situation and liaising with the relevant authorities to ensure that the latest and most accurate advice is provided to students undertaking a professional placement with an external industry partner.

VU continues to be guided by the most recent advice from Federal and State Governments as well as the World Health Organisation.

Updated information including FAQ's can be found on the VU website. Please review this information if you have any questions regarding VU's response to the COVID-19 situation. It contains links to a range of relevant and updated resources related to the virus.

The following questions will help determine your current level of exposure to COVID-19 and support us in ensuring your safety and the safety of those you may be in contact with on your placement.
