OUR VALUE PROPOSITION TO OUR STUDENTS AND THE COMMUNITY

Victoria University (VU) aims to be a great university of the 21st century by being inclusive rather than exclusive. We will provide exceptional value to our diverse community of students by guiding them to achieve their career aspirations through personalised, flexible, well-supported and industry relevant learning opportunities. Achievement will be demonstrated by our students' and graduates' employability and entrepreneurship.

The applied and translational research conducted by our staff and students will enhance social and economic outcomes in our heartland communities of the West of Melbourne and beyond. Our graduates as employees and citizens will shape the industries in which they work and communities where they live. Healthier, smarter and more sustainable communities will result.

A MESSAGE FROM THE CHANCELLOR

As Chancellor of Victoria University, I am privileged to preside at Graduations and to witness the enormous pride that our graduates take in their achievements. It is a pride that is shared by your family and friends, and by all VU staff and Council members. Your success in completing your course of study is our greatest reward.

As your graduation day is a significant milestone, it is important to me and the entire University community that each ceremony highlights the rich and genuine diversity of our University. We work hard to ensure that our ceremonies are friendly, inviting and engaging and that we honour the celebratory nature of the occasion. It is how we do things here at VU, and those outside the VU community who attend our ceremonies never fail to comment on what an uplifting experience it is.

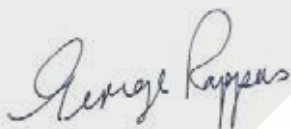

During your time with us, we have equipped you with the knowledge and skills you need to thrive in the modern world. You now have the tools to learn, to adapt, to be flexible, to be resilient and to succeed. You have shown an ability to set goals and achieve them. Throughout your study we have strived to give you an education which includes an understanding of the real world of work and an appreciation of the society in which we live. We are now sending you into the world to make a difference.

As a University we seek not only to provide you with a first class education but it is important to us that we strengthen the communities from which you come, and in many cases, to which you will return. Through you, and through the impact of our research on real world issues, we are improving our community, both locally and globally.

To each of our graduates – I urge you to enjoy your graduation day. Reflect on all that you have accomplished so far and on the many experiences still to come. Take a moment to think about what your time at VU has meant to you.

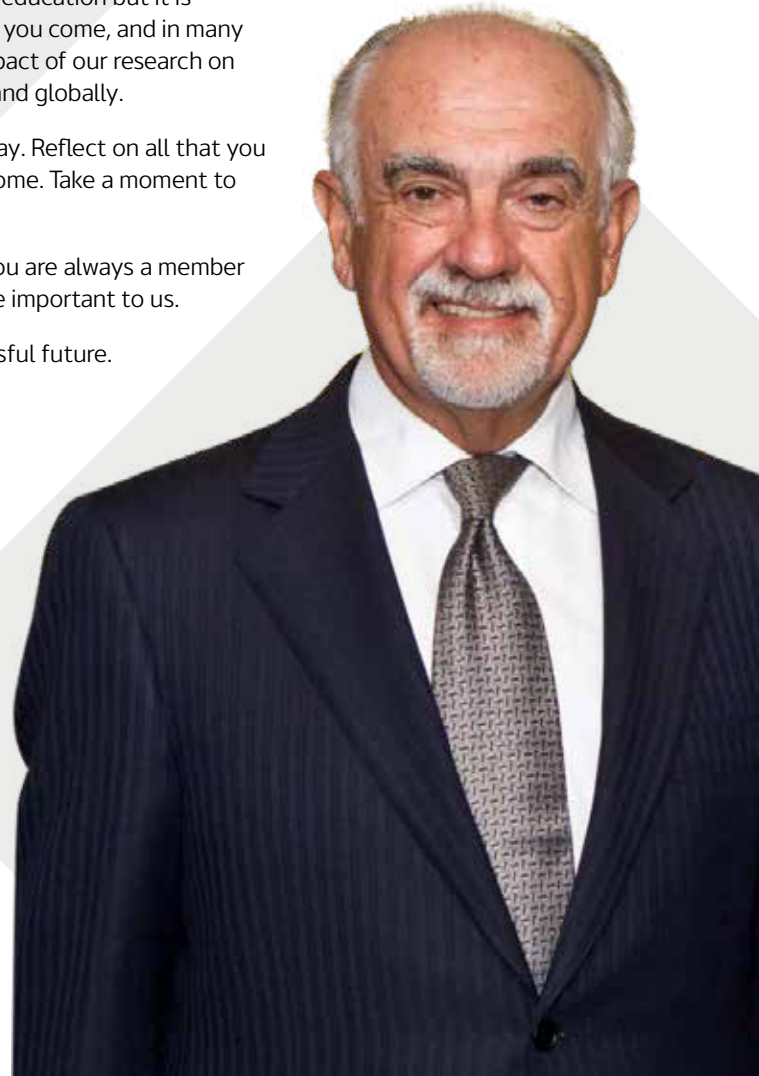

Please stay connected through our extensive Alumni network. You are always a member of our community and, as with all our students you will always be important to us.

Congratulations and very best wishes for an exciting and successful future.

Mr George Pappas AO

Chancellor

A MESSAGE FROM THE VICE-CHANCELLOR AND PRESIDENT

Welcome, and my heartfelt congratulations to all graduands at this important ceremony. As the Vice-Chancellor and President of Victoria University, I am honoured to celebrate your achievements with you in 2019. I would also like to extend a warm welcome to your family and friends who are sharing this special day with you.

In graduating from VU you are now alumni of a modern university which is among the world's best. While we remain the only tertiary institution based in the west of Melbourne, we also have a growing international reputation.

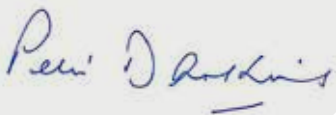

We are ranked in the top 2% of universities worldwide in the Times Higher Education World University Rankings. We are also ranked #45 in the world in the 2019 Times Higher Education Young University Rankings, a significant milestone for such a young institution.

This recognition for your university enhances the value of the qualification you have worked so hard to earn. It will assist you as you forge ahead with your career both here and abroad and enable you to say with pride that you are a graduate of Victoria University.

I join the Chancellor in encouraging you to remain connected to the University as part of our ever-growing Alumni community and I look forward to hearing more from you as you embrace your chance to join them as valued ambassadors of our institution.

Your award is an opportunity for you to make a real impact in the world locally, nationally and globally. I ask that you take the skills and knowledge you have gained here at VU and use them as the first vital step in your lifelong learning journey.

Congratulations on reaching this exciting milestone.

Professor Peter Dawkins AO

Vice-Chancellor and President

100 YEARS OF OPPORTUNITY AND SUCCESS

Congratulations! You have achieved an important milestone.

You have succeeded in your tertiary studies and we are delighted to send you into the world – or welcome you back for further study. You are now part of the VU family.

Today's Victoria University is a direct descendant of Footscray Technical School, which first opened its doors to students in February 1916. The school, with the support of the local community, took up the challenge to offer educational opportunities to the diverse population of Melbourne's West. We remain committed to that goal and we are now one of the longest-standing providers of education in Victoria.

The School adopted the image of the Door of Opportunity as a means of expressing to the entire community the school's purpose and reason for existence. Victoria University remains committed to that spirit and tradition as we embark on our next 100 years.

As the University of Opportunity and Success, we play a role in helping students from diverse backgrounds find success, and in the process we strive to be a distinctive University of the 21st century.

For a quarter of a century we have also been providing exceptional educational opportunities for international students. In Melbourne, nearly 20% of our total student population are international students from over 80 countries. Offshore, through high-quality partnerships, VU enrolls nearly 4,500 students per year in English, diploma, degree and master courses in China, Malaysia, Singapore, Vietnam and Sri Lanka.

VU is especially proud of our international alumni as they provide marvellous contributions to their employers, families and communities all over the world.

We have grown into one of Australia's biggest and best universities, with over 42,000 enrolled students and just under 2000 staff. Victoria University is ranked in the top 2% of universities worldwide, in the prestigious Times Higher Education World Rankings.

We have campuses in Melbourne's CBD, and spread across Melbourne's western region, and a Sydney campus that offers courses to international students.

The University encompasses:

- ◆ seven teaching colleges
- ◆ Victoria Polytechnic, VU's vocational training provider, and
- ◆ Two research institutes in our flagship areas of Sport, Health and Active Living and Sustainable Industries and Liveable Cities.

AT VU, FAMILY IS EVERYTHING

We are a young university with a long rich history dating back to the founding of Footscray Technical School in 1916. We are proud of each and every one of our students who have studied with us over our 100 year history. Where do you fit on the VU family tree?

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY

Victoria University acknowledge the Ancestors, Elders and families of the Boonwurrung and Woiwurrung of the Kulin who are the traditional owners of University land. As we share our own knowledge practices within the University may we pay respect to the deep knowledge embedded within the Aboriginal community and their ownership of Country. We acknowledge that the land on which we meet is a place of age old ceremonies of celebration, initiation and renewal and that the Kulin people's living culture has a unique role in the life of this region.

THE UNIVERSITY MACE – AN ESTABLISHED TRADITION

Our graduation ceremonies begin with the entrance of the University mace, signifying the authority of the Chancellor. Carried by the Mace Bearer, the mace symbolises learning, scholarship and our rich history. The mace connects us with those who have come before and those who will follow in the pursuit of learning. Made of sterling silver and 24-carat gold, the design includes the letter 'V', standing for Victoria – our University's home and namesake.

ACADEMIC DRESS

Wearing academic dress on ceremonial occasions is a celebrated university tradition, and generally consists of a gown (also known as a robe) with a separate hood (also known as a stole), and usually a cap – doctoral candidates wear a bonnet. Throughout the Commonwealth, universities usually follow the academic dress style of Oxford or Cambridge. Our academic dress is based on the Oxford style. Traditionally, the Chancellor’s gown is faced in gold and the Vice-Chancellor’s gown is faced in silver.

The colour of the hood (stole) identifies the discipline:

Ruby	Arts
Ultramarine	Business or Business Administration
Cherry	Education
Silver Grey	Engineering
Old Rose	Health Science
Parchment	Law
Pansy	Music
Buff	Psychology
Spectrum Green	Science, Applied Science and Sport Science
Gold	Social Studies
Gold	Sport and Recreation
Adonis Blue	Doctor of Business
Cherry	Doctor of Education
Graphite	Doctor of Engineering
Pearl White	Doctor of Laws
Ruby	Doctor of Letters
Sapphire	Doctor of Philosophy
Old Gold	Doctor of Psychology
Spectrum Green	Doctor of Science
Sky Blue	Doctor of the University
Tangerine	TAFE Certificates

The gowns worn by graduating students help distinguish undergraduate and higher degrees:

- ◆ undergraduates and postgraduates wear a black gown – Vocational Education, Further Education and undergraduate gowns have a large slit in each sleeve
- ◆ the masters gown has a long narrow sleeve extension
- ◆ doctoral candidates wear a red gown.

Masters – a black gown and black cap with a black hood fully lined with the discipline colour.

Doctors – a black bonnet with a gold cord, a scarlet gown with a facing and a black hood fully lined with the discipline colour.

Indigenous Australians – the gown of their award together with a calf-length black and red silk stole with gold tassels, a map of Victoria in gold silk, ‘Victoria University’ embroidered in gold on the left end of the stole, the sun embroidered in gold silk and ‘Ngaga Jindi Woraback’ embroidered in gold on the right end of the stole.

In official abbreviations of our awards, Victoria University is abbreviated to VicMelb.

ACADEMIC DRESS FOR PARTICULAR AWARDS IS AS FOLLOWS:

Certificates – a black cap and an undergraduate gown with a black stole with a facing of tangerine.

Diplomates and Graduate Certificates – a black cap and an undergraduate gown with a black stole with a facing in the discipline colour.

Bachelors – a black gown and black cap with a black hood half lined with the discipline colour. The hood for the honours degree has a white band on the edge of the hood.

DOCTOR OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Darren Joseph BEDNARSKI

Thesis title: Can shared value achieve competitive advantage within the private sector? An Australian Study.

Citation: The concept of Creating Shared Value involves asserting that the competitiveness of a business and society are mutually dependent. This study sought to examine whether strategies for Creating Shared Value influence competitive advantage and if so, how. It revealed that this can be achieved by developing capabilities and forging relationships, and by achieving both economic results and advancing social progress.

Supervisors: Dr Tatnall, Dr Davey

Woon Sim TEAH

Thesis title: Investigating Key Factors Influencing International Students' Choice of Private Higher Education Institutions (HEIs) in Malaysia

Citation: Woon Sim Teah's thesis investigated factors influencing international students' decision-making in choosing private Higher Education Institutions (HEIs) in Malaysia. Her study uses structural equation modelling to integrate a consumer decision-making model with push-pull theory to analyse an inclusive decision-making process that encompasses the international students' home country attributes, Malaysia as the study destination, HEI traits, perceptions of an overseas qualification, experiences of studying abroad, and overall satisfaction with the selected HEI. Woon Sim Teah's holistic study made a significant contribution to research by identifying distinguishing key factors that attract international students to study in Malaysia.

Supervisors: Dr Fong, Dr Nguyen

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY

Shammi AHMED

Thesis title: A Gender Sensitive Policy Framework for Disaster Management in Bangladesh

Citation: Shammi's research investigated the challenges faced by women in Bangladesh during major flooding events and whether the relief and recovery work of government and non-government agencies are adequate to address women specific issues and challenges. Her findings have made significant contribution in providing relief agencies (NGOs) with an understanding of challenges women face in a patriarchal society that has helped to reframe the disaster relief and recovery policies. It also has a profound implication on shaping the future direction of Bangladesh's Disaster Management Act (2012) that is working to include gender sensitive policies.

Supervisors: Dr Naughton

Ahmed Alshatir Q ALSIRHANI

Thesis title: The Refusal of Foreign Arbitral Awards in Saudi Arabia on the Grounds of Public Policy. An Issue of Fairness and Justice

Citation: Saudi Arabia has a significant incidence of refusal to enforce foreign arbitral awards on the grounds of public policy. Through a combination of interviews with key stakeholders and analysis of Sharia law, this thesis evaluates whether these refusals are fair and just. It concludes that while there is scope for abuse, the majority of such refusals are sincere and fair.

Supervisors: Dr Harvey, Dr Heenetigala

Stephanie Jayne BLAIR

Thesis title: Biomechanical considerations in goal-kicking accuracy: application of an inertial measurement system.

Citation: Stephanie examined goal-kicking accuracy in Australian football using wearable technology. She identified important technical factors on a group and individual-basis with results guiding coaching in AFL clubs. Stephanie published her work in the most prestigious Biomechanics journal, co-authored a book chapter, was an invited-speaker at an international conference, won the International-Biomechanics-Day video competition and featured on the Women's AFL Footy show. Stephanie now works for the Great Britain Cycling Team.

Supervisors: Dr Ball, Dr Duthie and Associate Professor Robertson

Jessica Lee BURLAK

Thesis title: A comprehensive analysis of the constituents of Executive Functioning: The utility of a paediatric model towards the clear conceptualisation of EF in healthy adults

Citation: Jessica's thesis makes a significant contribution to cognitive science by clarifying the operationalisation of Executive Functioning (EF) in healthy adults. Her unique findings support the exclusion of basic attention, and acknowledge the importance of speed of processing as a mediating factor in EF performance. Jessica is employed as an Academic Teaching Scholar in the First Year College at Victoria University.

Supervisors: Dr Ball, Dr Suleyman

Gabriele BYRNE

Thesis title: Targeting Problem Gambling Relapse Factors: Lack of Social Connectedness and Leisure Substitution

Citation: Gabriele Byrne's thesis, 'Targeting Problem Gambling Relapse Risk Factors: Lack of Social Connectedness and Leisure Substitution', analyses an innovative addition to problem gambling treatment approaches. Gabriele designed and, supported by volunteers, implemented group programs promoting social connectedness and leisure substitution. The thesis provides evidence of significant benefits in self-efficacy and mental health, supporting abstinence from, or control over, gambling.

Supervisors: Dr Doughney

Violetta CARTER

Thesis title: The Connection between Metacognition and Academic Writing in a Praxis Inquiry Model of Teacher Education.

Citation: Metacognition and academic writing were investigated to identify pedagogy to enhance writing skills. This thesis identified (a) a heightened consciousness of metacognition within praxis inquiry, and (b) visible pedagogy to develop analytical skills in the 'theorising' genre has potential to create discerning educators capable of high standards of writing. This knowledge contributes to the field of metacognition and academic writing in preservice teacher education.

Supervisors: Dr Cacciattolo, Dr Weaven

Erica CERVINI

Thesis title: Reading the Silence of My Great-Grandmother: The Role of Life-Writing in Locating the Hidden Life of a Jewish Woman

Citation: Erica Cervini explores how the genre of life-writing contributes to our understanding of an 'ordinary' Jewish woman. She makes a noteworthy contribution to feminist and life-writing conceptual frameworks by reconstructing the life of a private woman who did not leave diaries. She adds to academic scholarship regarding the extent to which knowledge resides in, and can be derived from, fragmentary sources.

Supervisors: Dr Weaven, Dr Lucas

Casie-Anne CHALMAN

Thesis title: Resilience, Adolescents and Outdoor Education: Is Resilience Context Specific?

Citation: This study addressed the concept that outdoor education programs are an effective method to develop resilience attributes and coping skills in young people. Casie utilised field research to examine Year 10 boys' self-development characteristics while participating in an extended journey-style outdoor education program. Qualitative and quantitative data reinforced how these personal challenge experiences can contribute to their physical, social, and psychological well being. The findings strongly support the ongoing use of these types of programs in secondary school education.

Supervisors: Dr Watt, Dr Burridge

Li GAO

Thesis title: Theoretical and experimental investigations of Permeate Gap Membrane Distillation

Citation: Li conducted both experimental and theoretical studies on the performance of hollow fibre permeate gap membrane distillation modules of different characteristics. The theoretical models have been validated by the experimental results, and can be used to provide guidance for scale up of the module for industry applications. Three papers from his results have been published in high standard international journals

Supervisors: Dr Li, Professor Gray, Dr Zhang

Alessandro GAROFOLINI

Thesis title: Exploring adaptability in long-distance runners: Effect of foot strike pattern on lower limb neuromuscular-skeletal capacity

Citation: Adaptable leg stiffness control is essential for running performance. Alessandro measured this attribute, along with foot structure and function, and demonstrated how they are influenced by foot landing pattern and footwear. His work has been applauded by experts, and influenced the footwear industry. Remarkably, in this brief time, Alessandro produced a perfect PhD score, a Master's Degree and 10 publications.

Supervisors: Dr Taylor, Associate Professor McLaughlin, Dr Mickle

Shane GOULD

Thesis title: Swimming in Australia: A cultural study

Citation: Shane developed a multi-dimensional framework that enabled her to investigate the political, economic and social forces that shape swimming practices and experiences in Australia. Her thesis reveals various forms of exclusion that are embedded within the unquestioned logic of swimming culture. Shane's research makes a significant contribution to the swimming industry by providing innovative solutions to make swimming more inclusive.

Supervisors: Dr McDonald, Dr McLachlan

Scott Phillip GRAHAM

Thesis title: Monitoring Strategies for Predicting Position-Specific Match Performance in State-Level Netball Athletes

Citation: Scott's research investigated unique methods for not only monitoring athlete training and competition but predicting position-specific performance in netball athletes. His research has contributed to the scientific community through various high-ranked journal publications and has attracted interest from a range of sporting communities. Scott's thesis was passed with minor change, and no changes required for two highly respected international researchers.

Supervisors: Dr Zois, Associate Professor Aughey, Dr Duthie

Andrew William HIBBERT

Thesis title: Factors affecting paced exercise: how is pacing strategy influenced?

Citation: This work has provided new insights in how to obtain valid and reliable data from novice cyclists in controlled laboratory studies. In addition, it examined factors influencing cycling time trial performance. This included the effect of transcutaneous electrical nerve stimulation, the presence of competitors and role of motivational orientation. Findings have both theoretical and practical implications.

Supervisors: Dr Peterson, Professor Polman, Professor Billaut, Dr Varley

Giang Truong HOANG

Thesis title: Leading Innovation in Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises: Understanding the Role of Empowering Leadership and Organisational Climate

Citation: Giang's PhD examined how empowering leadership influenced innovation and the mediating role of climate for innovation in Vietnamese tourism SMEs. The study found that leaders who both empower and initiate structure created a positive working environment that encouraged employee innovation. The research attracted a best paper award and has been published in the Leadership & Organization Development Journal.

Supervisors: Professor Wilson-Evered

Caitlin Jade HONEY

Thesis title: The Emergence of Multi-Sport Holiday Programmes: How Organised Sport has become a form of Childcare

Citation: Caitlin's research examined how the changing socio-political climate in Australia shaped the emergence of sport-based childcare, including implications for how children engage in sport. Findings suggest that competitive and merit-based sport environments promote narrow discourses of healthism and hegemonic masculinity. Caitlin has presented this thesis internationally and uses it to inform her work as a General Manager at Athletics Victoria.

Supervisors: Dr McDonald, Dr Curro

Ghanim Mohammed KAMIL

Thesis title: Nonlinear Analysis of Rectangular Concrete-Filled Steel Tubular Columns at Elevated Temperatures

Citation: This research developed computational models for predicting the responses of rectangular thin-walled concrete-filled steel tubular columns under fire exposure and after being exposed to fire. The developed models are efficient computer simulation techniques that can be utilized by practicing engineers to design composite structures for fire safety. The research findings have been published in several articles in high-impact international journals.

Supervisors: Professor DeLacy, Dr Jiang

Martinus Antonius Joseph KOOMEN

Thesis title: Educational assessment for economies, societies and citizens: Towards a general theory of educational assessment

Citation: Marten examined how different attitudes towards technological and social progress affect educational assessment design and use. Several tensions were identified and framed around these attitudes and described to facilitate better educational assessment design and use. Examiners found that this thesis made a significant contribution to our understanding of the impact new technologies have on assessment and reporting. A number of publications are emerging from the work related to methodology and frameworks for design.

Supervisors: Dr Martino, Dr Sadler, Dr Zoanetti

Lyndon KRAUSE

Thesis title: Exploring the Influence of Practice Design on the Development of Tennis Players

Citation: Lyndon examined the effectiveness of common tennis practice approaches to enhance the learning and transfer of skills to competition. He found that often typical tennis practice is overly cooperative and not reflective of the demands of competition. Lyndon's work has resulted in the development of a tool for coaches to evaluate the effectiveness of their practice. He has published 4 papers in high impact journals and completed a range of presentations to international tennis coaches and scientists. Lyndon is now employed by Tennis Australia as an applied scientist in the Tennis Lab.

Supervisors: Professor Farrow, Dr T Buszard, Dr R Pinder, Dr M Reid

Matthew Jean Claude LEE

Thesis title: Adaptations to concurrent training in healthy active men: the role of exercise session order

Citation: Concurrently performing endurance and resistance exercise within the same program is associated with compromised adaptations. Matt investigated the physiological and molecular adaptations to concurrent training, specifically examining the role of exercise order in preventing potential detriments to adaptation. Concurrent training did not interfere with training adaptations and performance, suggesting the choice of exercise order may be dictated by personal preference.

Supervisors: Dr Bartlett, Professor Bishop

Gabrielle LINDSAY SMITH

Thesis title: Active Ageing in The Community. Exploring the Role of Community Activity Groups for Older Adults for Physical Activity, Health and Wellbeing.

Citation: We are an ageing society, and ageing is often associated with declining physical and mental health and physical activity levels. This program of research provides evidence that participation in community activity programs for older adults offer a variety of physical activity, health and wellbeing benefits, particularly through enhancing social connectedness. The work resulted in 3 peer-reviewed papers.

Supervisors: Professor Eime, Dr van Uffelen

Abdullah Hadi M MADHESH

Thesis title: Inclusion of Deaf Students in Primary Schools

Citation: This study investigates the effects of policy and its implementation on educational outcomes for deaf students in Saudi Arabia. Critical disability and inclusive education theory was employed in this qualitative study. It concludes that the Saudi education system systematically excludes deaf students. Findings from this study may contribute to the transformation of education provision for deaf students in Saudi Arabia.

Supervisors: Associate Professor White, Dr Corcoran, Dr Pannell, Dr MacDonald

Mokhamad NUR

Thesis title: Tragacanth as a Novel Excipient in Oral Insulin Delivery

Citation: Insulin is administered to diabetics mainly through injection. The tension and discomfort of multiple daily injections has raised concerns to develop oral insulin administration. This thesis has made a significant contribution to the complexation properties of insulin and tragacanth, as natural polymer excipient. Nano-micro encapsulated of insulin with tragacanth may act as a potentially promising device for oral insulin delivery.

Supervisors: Professor Vasiljevic, Dr Dass, Dr Ramchandran

Nathan Wylie PITCHFORD

Thesis title: Uncovering the influence of sleep in recovery, training and team-sport competition

Citation: Nathan examined the sleep behaviours of Australian Rules Footballers during recovery from training and competition, and the effects of sleep extension on post-exercise recovery. This thesis has made significant contributions to understanding the relationships sleep has with travel, training, competition and recovery. These outcomes provide recommendations to practitioners and athletes in professional sport on optimising sleep around training and competition.

Supervisors: Dr Bartlett, Professor Bishop

Elizabeth Karen RICHARDSON

Thesis title: Monitoring the Development of Communication and Literacy Skills Among Learners with an Autism Spectrum Disorder

Citation: This study examined the design and validation of an assessment instrument for learners with autism spectrum disorder (ASD) and captured and informed teacher observation of student progress in relation to communication and literacy skills. The research builds knowledge of educational assessment for learners with ASD in relation to communication and literacy foundation skills for young learners with ASD

Supervisors: Associate Professor McKenna, Dr Wu

Nithya SAIPRASAD

Thesis title: Optimum Sizing and Triple Bottom Line Analysis of Integrating Hybrid Renewable Energy Systems into the Micro-Grid

Citation: Global reliance on fossil fuels contributes 80% of primary energy, which has resulted in rise of global temperatures. This study uses novel application in micro-grids, using both photovoltaic and wind turbine for supplying power in a developed and developing country. Triple Bottom Line analysis on Techno-economic, environmental and social perspectives has been conducted to understand feasibility of adopting Renewable Energy.

Supervisors: Professor Kalam, Associate Professor Zayegh

Nicholas SANER

Thesis title: Can exercise mitigate the negative metabolic effects associated with sleep loss?

Citation: Nick examined the impact of sleep loss on metabolic health and if performing a bout of high-intensity exercise mitigates these responses. Nick showed that sleep loss is highly detrimental to health, but exercising, even when experiencing sleep loss can prevent these effects. Nick has won a number of awards for this work, whilst these findings also help those who regularly experience sleep loss.

Supervisors: Dr Barlett, Professor Bishop

Slamet Budi SANTOSO

Thesis title: Stakeholders' Collaboration in Poverty Reduction in South Sulawesi: A Case Study.

Citation: Budi examined the failure of poverty reduction programs in Sulawesi Province, Indonesia. Drawing on the Evolutionary Governance Theory (EGT), and a Case Study approach, the study demonstrated that failure of actor collaboration and collective decision making at the provincial and local district levels were significant challenges. The study proposes innovative actor engagement as catalytic to collaboration and shared vision.

Supervisors: Dr Mphande, Associate Professor Malloch

Linda SASTRADIPRADJA

Thesis title: Agency, Authorship and Embodied Aesthetics: The Dancer as Auteur

Citation: This creative practice-based PhD investigates the concept of the dancer as auteur. Comprising performed presentation and exegesis, the thesis works to make the often-invisible position of the dancer manifest. The thesis makes a significant contribution to the field of practice-led dance and performance research by offering new methodologies for the articulation of studio-based knowledges and practices.

Supervisors: Dr Dempster and Dr Rothfield

Elizabeth SIDIPOULOS

Thesis title: The Contribution of Tertiary Sustainability Education to Student Knowledge, Views, Attitudes and Behaviour toward Sustainability

Citation: Elizabeth presented five journal articles and an exegesis that reported quantitative and qualitative evidence of the important role that tertiary education has in fostering students' learning regarding global sustainability issues. Implications for the development of policy and praxis were formulated that support learning and teaching models to enhance students' connections to sustainability education. Tertiary educators can use these findings to assist students conceptualising and addressing current and future sustainability challenges.

Supervisors: Associate Professor Watt, Dr Widdop-Quinton

Bartholomew SPENCER

Thesis title: Spatiotemporal Analysis of Australian Rules Football

Citation: This thesis developed new methodologies for measuring the spatial interactions and occupancy of players in team sports, using player tracking and match event data collected in Australian Rules football matches. Applications included methods to quantify match density and coupling, as well as new player motion and pass decision-making models.

Supervisors: Associate Professor Robertson, Dr Morgan, Professor Zeleznikow

Rhian Gordon STAVELY

Thesis title: Mechanisms of Mesenchymal Stem Cell Therapy for Enteric Neuropathy Associated with Colitis

Citation: Rhian Stavely performed cutting-edge research in the area of stem cell therapy. Rhian's work unravels molecular mechanisms of stem cell therapy involved in repair of the damaged nervous system in the gut caused by chronic inflammation. Rhian published 9 papers in high impact journals during his PhD studies. He is currently a Postdoctorate Research Fellow at the Harvard University, USA.

Supervisors: Dr Nurgali, Dr Sakkal

Kasey Malisse SYMONS

Thesis title: One of the Boys: The (Gendered) Performance of My Football Career

Citation: Kasey's research explores the complex ways that women may experience work and fandom within the culture of the (men's) Australian Football League. Her thesis has involved writing an original novel, combined with a critical exegesis. Kasey's examiners have praised the importance her contribution to understanding feminine perspectives on Australia's highest-profile sporting competition, as well as the quality of her writing.

Supervisors: Associate Professor Clark, Dr Klugman

Yannick THORAVAL

Thesis title: Race, Place and Grace: Cosmopolitanism in Small Town Australia

Citation: This is a PhD by creative work, comprising a novel and a critical exegesis. The thesis explores ideas about cosmopolitanism and loyalty to culture in Australia today, and shows that small rural towns may reveal cosmopolitan values more clearly than the large cities most of us live in. Examiners praised both the originality and the quality of the work.

Supervisors: Associate Professor Clark, Dr Kon

Rahul WADHWANI

Thesis title: Physics-based simulation of short-range spotting in wildfires

Citation: Embers are a leading cause for increased fire propagation and house loss during bushfire. This research looks into the transport and ignition propensity of embers to accurately quantify their behaviour. Accordingly an artificial ember shower generator was constructed and a state-of-the-art numerical model was improved through validation. This research lays foundations to develop operational models to assist emergency planning.

Supervisors: Associate Professor Moineddin, Mr Sutherland

Phatsorn WARAPHONGTHANACHOT

Thesis title: Enhancing Flow Antecedents to Promote Flow and Increase Basketball Shooting Performance

Citation: Phatsorn conducted three studies examining whether imagery of key antecedent flow dimensions promotes flow state and performance in basketball shooting. She found that imagery enhanced key dimensions of the positive flow state and performance increased in all three studies. Examiners praised this landmark research, which provides a foundation for enhancing enjoyment, intrinsic motivation and performance in sport.

Supervisors: Professor Morris, Associate Professor Watt

Michael Ernst WILDENAUER

Thesis title: Angels, Entrepreneurs, & Board Effectiveness in Australian Startups: the influence of board member interactions on cohesiveness and task performance

Citation: Michael investigated power and conflict effects on board effectiveness in Australian startups. The research extended theoretical models, applied novel methods, and results of this work will benefit board practitioners. Michael was Most Outstanding Student for the DBA prior to converting to PhD, has presented three conference papers and one published paper. He is currently a Professor of Practice at La Trobe University

Supervisors: Professor Armstrong, Associate Professor Clarke

Mary Nina WOESSNER

Thesis title: BEET-HF: The Effects of Dietary Inorganic Nitrate Supplementation on Aerobic Exercise Performance, Vascular Function, Cardiac Performance and Mitochondrial Respiration in Patients with Heart Failure with Reduced Ejection Fraction

Citation: Patients with heart failure have reduced heart and functional capacities. Mary examined whether nitrate supplementation can restore these functions and improve patients' quality of life. Overall, the intervention had limited effects which highlights that there is no "simple" solution for heart failure. This work was supported by the Heart Foundation, published in prestigious journals and presented at international conferences.

Supervisors: Associate Professor Levinger, Professor Allem, Associate Professor Neil

Digby WREDE

Thesis title: Utilisation of High Rate Algal Ponds to Treat Secondary Lagoon Effluent and Enhance Biomass Production

Citation: Treatment of secondary effluent by high rate algal ponds is a low energy approach to remove nutrients and has the ability to produce added value through biomass production. Biomass growth rate in high rate algal ponds was modelled to improve process design and optimisation of biomass production. Approaches to increase biomass production and to enable algal harvesting were demonstrated.

Supervisors: Professor Gray, Associate Professor Hussainy

Po ZHANG

Thesis title: Fouling and its control in membrane distillation for the treatment of reverse osmosis brine

Citation: Po investigated application of membrane distillation technology as a sustainable means to reduce waste and recover fresh water from a range of challenging industrial wastewaters. Successful strategies to manage operation were developed by exploring fundamental chemical interactions and use of associated treatments. The outcomes have guided industry to implement the technology and contributed two journal articles and two conference presentations.

Supervisors: Professor Duke, Professor Gray

MASTER OF BUSINESS

Elahe HOSEINIROUZABADI

Thesis title: Understanding drivers for, and barriers to green jobs in the tourism sector: A case study of Rafsanjan, Iran

Citation: The tourism sector is making steps to transform into the emerging green economy. In doing so it needs strategies to create more green jobs. Elahe's research is one of the first studies investigating this important topic. She did this using a case study of an important tourism destination in her home country of Iran.

Supervisors: Professor DeLacy, Dr Jiang

MASTER OF EDUCATION

Helen BAYNE

Thesis title: Complex problems and collaboration

Citation: Helen's research challenges the assumption that increased collaboration effort can resolve complex social problems in and of itself. Making connections between the discipline of complex problems and also collaboration has made a contribution to a better understanding of how the practice of addressing complex social problems might be improved when practice draws on knowledge from two dispersed areas of research.

Supervisors: Associate Professor White

Thi Thu Hien LE

Thesis title: Quality Assurance of Soft Skills Courses: A Comparative Study of Training Organisations in Vietnam and Australia

Citation: Ms Thi Thu Hien Le's study: Quality Assurance of Soft Skills Courses: A Comparative Study of Training Organisations in Vietnam and Australia employs case studies to investigate business sector non accredited training. Selected training providers in Vietnam and Australia indicate similar approaches to quality and client satisfaction, with Vietnam emphasising learning and Australian regulatory requirements placing an emphasis on compliance.

MASTER OF ENGINEERING

Srilal Dhammika GUNASEKERA

Thesis title: Design and Development of Protection, Control and SCADA of Model Zone Substation Laboratory Based on the IEC61850 Communication Standard

Citation: Srilal has identified the current industry requirements for Substation Automation System. VU's model zone substation laboratory can be utilized for R&D purposes customizing for any research studies based on IEC61850 communication standard. Given the capabilities offered by IEC61850 standard and limited implementation at substation level, development of a test bench can further utilize IEC61850 in Power System Substation Automation level.

Supervisors: Professor Kalam, Associate Professor Zayegh

Hafiz Muhammad Waqas SALEEM

Thesis title: Development of a Fault Detection Model for Cyber Physical Power System

Citation: Hafiz's thesis investigates and implements fault detection scheme for cyber-physical power system. The effect of line outages on Smart Grid is demonstrated when there is an attack from hacker that altered the information of phasor measurement unit. Power World Simulator is used to simulate IEEE 13- and 39-Bus systems, having renewable energy generators to test the grid after line outage.

HONORARY DEGREE CITATION

John McCall MacBain AC

Victoria University is proud to honour John McCall MacBain OC, for his significant contribution to the business and philanthropic sectors, by working to improve education and health outcomes, and the environment, to advance the welfare of humanity, and for his sustained contributions to Victoria University.

Mr McCall MacBain was born and raised in Niagara Falls, Ontario, Canada. Mr McCall MacBain received an MBA from Harvard Business School in 1984, an MA in Law from Oxford University in 1982 as a Rhodes Scholar and an Honours BA in Economics from McGill University in 1980. He holds honorary degrees from McGill University, the University of Ottawa, Dalhousie University, and Brock University in Canada, as well as Monash University.

From 1987 to 2006, Mr McCall MacBain was the Founder, President and CEO of Trader Classified Media, the world's leading classified advertising company. Trader had owned classified advertising publications and websites in 23 countries including France, Canada, China, Argentina, Russia, Hungary, Mexico, Italy and Spain. In 2006, Mr McCall MacBain successfully sold Trader Classified Media and used funds from the sale to found the McCall MacBain Foundation.

To this day Mr McCall MacBain is Chair of the McCall MacBain Foundation and its investment arm, Pamoja Capital SA. The mission of the McCall MacBain Foundation is to improve the welfare of humanity by providing scholarships and other educational opportunities that nurture transformational leadership, and by investing in evidence-based strategies to address climate change, preserve our natural environment, and improve health outcomes. Since its establishment in 2006, the McCall MacBain Foundation has committed $400 million to initiatives in education, health, and the environment in Canada, Europe, Australia, New Zealand and sub-Saharan Africa.

Mr McCall MacBain is the Founding Chair of the European Climate Foundation, Chair of the McGill University Principal's International Advisory Board, a member of the Advisory Board for the Yale Centre for Environmental Law and Policy and a Foundation Fellow of Wadham College, Oxford. He is the Second Century Founder of the Rhodes Trust in Oxford and a director of the Mandela Rhodes Foundation in Cape Town. Mr McCall MacBain is an Officer of the Order of Canada.

Mr McCall MacBain has a close relationship with Victoria University and has supported the University through both commercial and philanthropic initiatives. To support this mission, in 2014 Pamoja Capital partnered with VU on the development a 500-bed student accommodation complex in Footscray. Mr McCall MacBain "turned the sod" on the development in 2014, and officially opened the complex with the Vice-Chancellor in 2016.

Mr McCall MacBain is a firm believer in the power of scholarships, and believes that the power of education, and scholarships in particular, transform lives and in turn transform communities to be fairer, healthier, and more prosperous for all. The McCall MacBain Foundation was a founding donor to Victoria University Asylum Seeker Scholarships and, through UniLodge, has supported the University's Achievement Scholarship fund over a number of years.

In March 2016, Mr McCall MacBain and his wife, Dr Marcy McCall MacBain, delivered the Victoria University Chancellor's Lecture, in which they shared stories and insights about establishing the McCall MacBain Foundation.

In recognition of his outstanding contribution to Victoria University, to Australia, and for his significant contribution to the business and philanthropic sectors, I present to you, for admission to the degree of Doctor of the University, honoris causa, John McCall MacBain.

UNIVERSITY MEDALS FOR ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Victoria University awards the University Medal for Academic Excellence in order to recognise high-achieving students who demonstrate the University's commitment to excellence, and display the attributes of a future generation of academic leaders.

Higher Education medals are awarded to students in each college in any of the following categories:

- ◆ Undergraduate Studies
- ◆ Undergraduate Honours
- ◆ Postgraduate Coursework.

Medals are awarded to those graduates who have achieved consistent academic excellence over the duration of their course and a Grade Point Average of at least 6.8 out of maximum of 7.

Congratulations to the recipients of the University Medal for Academic Excellence:

Amy Livingstone

College of Health & Biomedicine

Inga Corneliusson

Victoria University Business School

Samantha Hobson

College of Sport & Exercise Science

Neil Peavey

College of Engineering & Science

Lachlan Martin

College of Law & Justice

Kyle Valentino

UNIVERSITY MEDALS FOR ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE IN RESEARCH TRAINING

Victoria University awards the University Medal for Academic Excellence in Research Training in order to recognise high-achieving students who demonstrate the University's commitment to excellence, and display the attributes of a future generation of academic leaders.

University medals for Research Training are awarded each year, on the basis of excellence in thesis quality and outstanding reports from examiners.

Congratulations to the recipient of the University Medal for Academic Excellence in Research Training:

Lyndon Krause
