IMPORTANT INFORMATION

The course details in this handbook (plus details of all other Victoria University courses) can also be searched on the University’s online courses database at www.vu.edu.au/courses

This handbook can be downloaded as a pdf file from the Victoria University website at www.vu.edu.au/courses/course-handbooks-and-guides
HOW TO USE THIS HANDBOOK

Victoria University’s 2012 Faculty of Business and Law Handbook is designed to provide students with detailed information on course structures and subject details for undergraduate and postgraduate courses offered by the faculty in 2012.

NOTE: Courses available to International students are marked with the (I) symbol.

The definition of fields used in course tables throughout this handbook include:

Credit Point – the number of credit points a subject contributes towards the total points needed to complete a course.

PLEASE NOTE

This handbook provides a guide to courses available within Victoria University’s Faculty of Business and Law in 2012. Although all attempts have been made to make the information as accurate as possible, students should check with the faculty that the information is accurate when planning their courses.

NOTE: Prospective students are strongly advised to search the University’s online courses database at www.vu.edu.au/courses for the most up-to-date list of courses.

This handbook includes descriptions of courses that may later be altered or include courses that may not be offered due to unforeseen circumstances, such as insufficient enrolments or changes in teaching personnel. The fact that details of a course are included in this handbook can in no way be taken as creating an obligation on the part of the University to teach it in any given year or in the manner described. The University reserves the right to discontinue or vary courses at any time without notice.

OTHER INFORMATION

Information about course fees, articulation and credit transfer, recognition of prior learning, admission and enrolment procedures, examinations, and services available to students can be accessed on the University’s website or by contacting the University directly.

On completion of eight approved units of study students who choose to exit this course will be eligible to receive the Graduate Diploma in Business Administration. On completion of four approved units of study students who choose to exit this course will be eligible to receive the Graduate Certificate in Business.
The course aims to develop students’ knowledge of the field of logistics and supply chain management. Particular focus is based upon the skills and techniques required for employment, in the logistics and supply chain sectors, in senior management roles.

Course Objectives: The Master of Business (Supply Chain Management) is aimed at both recent graduates, for extending their knowledge in this specialist field, and those who have been working in the industry who now wish to support their experience with the relevant academic qualification. The specific objectives of the course are to: explore the ways in which networks of interconnected businesses collaborate to make, and deliver, products and services for global markets. develop an understanding of the full range of activities that constitute the supply chain management discipline - from global procurement and operations management, to logistics strategies, project management and ERP systems. emphasise the critical elements of successful supply chain management, involving the management of relationships, information and material flow, across organisational borders, for delivering high quality customer service and economic value; expand students’ knowledge and awareness of supply chain and logistical theory relevant to their workplace and career aspirations; nurture the skills, knowledge and expertise required for senior management roles in this fast-changing industry; further develop the theory base and applied knowledge of professional practice; promote the creation of working networks where students can learn and benefit from the valuable experiences of their fellow students.

Careers: Supply chain management is one of the largest industries in Australia and a masters degree can greatly enhance career opportunities across a wide range of roles, such as: supply chain managers, logistics professionals, global procurement specialists, sourcing/distribution managers, enterprise resource planning developers, project leaders, transport coordinators, warehouse supervisors, import/export and customs managers.

Course Duration: 1.5 years.

Admission Requirements Year 12: To qualify for admission to the course an applicant must have normally completed successfully a degree or equivalent qualification. In the absence of formal qualifications an applicant must have such training and work experience as to indicate the ability to undertake the course successfully. In addition to satisfying the entry requirements for Australian resident students or demonstrating equivalence, overseas students must provide evidence of proficiency in the English language: International English Language Testing System - overall score of 6.5 and no individual band score less than 6.

Admission Requirements Other: There are no special admission requirements.

Course Structure
The course is comprised of 8 (compulsory) core units and 4 elective units, chosen by the individual student, subject to the final approval of the course coordinator. The course may be undertaken on either a full-time basis, over three semesters, or part-time equivalent. Full time study is regarded as 3-4 units of study per semester, whereas part time study is viewed as 1/2 units per semester. Each unit of study carries a value of 12 credit points and students must complete 144 credit points through academic study in order to graduate.

BCP8002 PHD (RESEARCH) (FULL TIME) 48
OR
BCP8003 PHD (RESEARCH) (PART-TIME) 24

MASTER OF BUSINESS [BY RESEARCH] (I)
Course Code: BRAC
Campus: City Flinders.

Course Objectives: The Master of Business by Research can be offered by the School of Information Systems. Students complete a major thesis worthy of publication under the supervision of an experienced member of staff.

Course Duration: 2 years.

COURSE STRUCTURE
The course normally requires two years of full-time study or part-time equivalent. The research thesis is equal to a combined total of 192 credit points.

BMO9800 RESEARCH THESIS (FULL TIME) 48
OR
BMO9801 RESEARCH THESIS (PART TIME) 24

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY
Course Code: CPPP
Campus: City Flinders.

This course is for Continuing students only.

About this course: Undertaken purely by research and available within the Victoria Graduate School of Business. Academic staff with suitable qualifications and proven research skills supervise students undertaking business and executive studies related projects.

Course Objectives: The Doctor of Philosophy undertaken purely by research is available within the Victoria Graduate School of Business. Academic staff with suitable qualifications and proven research skills supervise students undertaking business and executive studies related projects.

Course Duration: 3 years.

COURSE STRUCTURE
The course normally requires three years of full-time study or part-time equivalent. The research thesis is equal to a combined total of 288 credit points. Course replaced by BPVV (4 year course) from 2009. Course is only available to commencing students from 2009.

BSPCSM  COMPUTER SYSTEMS MANAGEMENT
Locations: Werribee, Footscray Park, City Flinders, Off-shore.
Get on track for a career in computer systems administration. With the Bachelor of Business Computer Systems Management specialisation you will learn about conceptual foundations that information systems are built and operate on, and how to effectively manage computing resources in modern workplaces. You can attain professional membership of the Australian Computer Society (ACS).

Specialisation Requirements Students are required to successfully complete all seven units of study.

- BCO1046  COMPUTER SYSTEMS 12
- BCO1048  INTRODUCTION TO BUSINESS SYSTEMS DEVELOPMENT 12
- BCO2040  MANAGING THE COMPUTING ENVIRONMENT 12
- BCO2041  SYSTEMS ANALYSIS AND DESIGN 12
- BCO2043  MANAGING NETWORK INTEGRATION 12
- BCO2149  DATABASE SYSTEMS 12
- BCO3040  MANAGING SYSTEMS DEVELOPMENT 12

BSPGLT  GLOBAL LOGISTICS AND TRANSPORT
Locations: Werribee, Footscray Park, City Flinders, Off-shore.
Develop your career in logistics and supply chain management with the Bachelor of Business Global Logistics and Transport specialisation. Examine all aspects and issues of logistics in a sustainable supply chain, specifically purchasing and procurement of materials, inventory flow and control, storage and material handling in warehousing, economics of mode of transport, and distribution and shipment.

Specialisation Requirements Students are required to successfully complete all seven units of study.

- BEO3201  DISTRIBUTION MANAGEMENT AND OPERATIONS 12
- BEO3202  SUPPLY PRINCIPLES 12
- BEO3203  SUPPLY AND VALUE NETWORKS 12
- BEO3418  GLOBAL TRANSPORT ECONOMICS 12
- BEO4123  GLOBAL LOGISTICS 12
- BEO3432  STRATEGIC INTERNATIONAL TRADE OPERATIONS 12
- RCM3021  LOGISTICS ANALYSIS AND SOLUTIONS 12

BSPHRM  HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT
Locations: Footscray Park, City Flinders, Off-shore.
Learn the skills to begin your career in human resources with the Bachelor of Business Human Resource Management specialisation. This industry-focused specialisation has professional recognition by the Australian Human Resource Institute (AHRI).

Specialisation Requirements Students are required to successfully complete all seven units of study.

- BLO2207  EMPLOYMENT LAW 12
- BM03220  HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT 12
- BM03323  EMPLOYEE RELATIONS MANAGEMENT 12
- BM03324  CONSULTING AND COUNSELLING 12

BMO3325  HUMAN RESOURCES MANAGEMENT EVALUATION 12
BMO3420  HUMAN RESOURCE INFORMATION SYSTEMS 12
BMO3476  TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT 12

BSPISY  INFORMATION SYSTEMS
Locations: Werribee, Footscray Park, City Flinders, Off-shore.
Begin your career in the fast-paced world of Information Systems with this Bachelor of Business specialisation. You will focus on the strategic use, management and development of information systems within an organisation, and gain an understanding of how and why certain information systems are used and deployed within organisations. On completion of this specialisation, you will have an understanding of the use of transactional and data warehouse systems, programming and problem solving techniques, and analysis, design and implementation of information systems. You can attain professional membership of the Australian Computer Society (ACS).

Specialisation Requirements Students are required to successfully complete all seven units of study.

- BCO1046  COMPUTER SYSTEMS 12
- BCO1103  WEB ENABLED BUSINESS SYSTEMS 12
- BCO1147  INTRODUCTION TO PROGRAMMING CONCEPTS 12
- BCO2148  SYSTEMS ANALYSIS 12
- BCO2149  DATABASE SYSTEMS 12
- BCO3144  SYSTEMS DESIGN 12
- BCO3150  SYSTEMS IMPLEMENTATION 12

BSPMAN  MANAGEMENT
Locations: Footscray Park, Off-shore.
Gain a keen focus on important management concepts and functions with the Bachelor of Business Management specialisation. Study the theories, principles and processes of strategic management, operations management, change management, business ethics and organisational analysis. Develop career-ready skills in communication, negotiation, teamwork, problem-solving and strategic thinking.

Specialisation Requirements Students are required to successfully complete all seven units of study.

- BMO2181  OPERATIONS MANAGEMENT 12
- BM03352  INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT 12
- BM03292  BUSINESS ETHICS 12
- BM04420  ORGANISATIONAL BEHAVIOUR AND ANALYSIS 12
- BM03327  ORGANISATIONAL CHANGE AND DEVELOPMENT 12
- BM03422  STRATEGIC MANAGEMENT 12
- BM04422  INNOVATION AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP 12
BSBSBE  SMALL BUSINESS AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP

Locations: Footscray Park.

Develop the skills you need to deal with the challenges of operating your own business with the Bachelor of Business Small Business and Entrepreneurship specialisation. You will learn how to deal with challenges such as local and international competition, managing the financial aspects of the business and making technology work for you.

Specialisation Requirements Students are required to successfully complete all seven units of study:

- BAO1110  ACCOUNTING FOR SMALL BUSINESS  12
- BMO2100  INTRODUCTION TO SMALL ENTERPRISE  12
- BMO2182  ENTREPRENEURIAL BUSINESS MANAGEMENT  12
- BMO2183  ENTREPRENEURIAL BUSINESS ISSUES  12
- BAO2441  PERSONAL FINANCIAL PLANNING  12
- BMO3100  THE ENTERPRISE PROJECT  12
- BMO4422  INNOVATION AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP  12
UNITs

Below are unit details for courses offered by the School of Management and Information Systems in 2012.

Important Notice: Not all elective subjects for courses offered by the school are listed below. There are numerous elective possibilities that the school can choose to offer and those selected will vary year to year. Details of these electives will be advised by the school.

BCF9110 INTRODUCTORY COMPUTING

Locations: Werribee.

Prerequisites: Nil.

Description: The introductory subject aims to give students a broad insight into the use and application of computers in the sciences. Topics covered include: computer systems, hardware and software, word processing, spreadsheets, databases, data communications, artificial intelligence, computers as a research tool, social implications of computing.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules as a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Required Reading: To be advised by lecturer.

Assessment: Practical Work, 50%; Examination, 50%.

BCO1041 INTRODUCTION TO PROGRAMMING

Locations: Werribee, Other.

Prerequisites: BCO1102 - INFORMATION SYSTEMS FOR BUSINESS

Description: The unit of study provides students with the knowledge and skills needed to design, construct, test and document programs using a visual, event-driven, programming environment. Topics covered include: problem solving methodologies, user input validation, decision making in the context of small business problems, modular design, basic user-interface design.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: On completion of this unit, students should be able to:

- apply a methodology to design a solution to a small sub case of an information system;
- demonstrate skills in converting the design to a programming language;
- apply suitable testing strategies and plans to ensure that the design solution and implementation are correct; and provide documentation for the program that is appropriate for each type of user.

Class Contact: To be advised by the lecturer.

Assessment: Examination, Final Examination, 50%. Assignment, Class Assignment, 35%. Test, Class Tests, 15%.

BCO1043 INFORMATION SYSTEMS TECHNOLOGY

Locations: Footscray Park, Other.

Prerequisites: BCO1102 - INFORMATION SYSTEMS FOR BUSINESS

Description: This unit of study aims to give students an overview of Information Systems Technology and how this is applied to business. The use of the Internet for business communication and the models that are used to deliver business processes. The role and use of network operating systems on different platforms, and networking access methods. Topics include: Standard PC organisation and architecture for business systems; Memory devices and memory management; File systems and file management; User interfaces: Hardware interrupts and diagnostic tools; Standard Network topologies incorporating LANS and WANS. Students will undertake various practical activities involving both operating and networking systems software installation. Investigation of security issues and standards to safeguard business data.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: On completion of this unit students should:

- be able to understand the basic principles of Information Technologies in business;
- be familiar with the underlying representation of data within the computer;
- be familiar with the operation of various peripheral devices;
- be able to understand basic hardware operation and diagnostic tools;
- be familiar with the use of user interfaces;
- have a basic understanding of file management within the computer system;
- have an understanding of basic data communications and network access methods;
- be able to demonstrate a knowledge of network operating systems commands;
- be able to analyse security issues and awareness of standards and policy;
- should be able to conduct a case study analysis of an ICT infrastructure for a business (TCO, DR, BCP);
- be able to integrate network concepts, operating system, and business processes in a reliable and efficient manner with a suitable information technology infrastructure.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules as a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Assignment, Case Study Assignment, 20%. Report, Report from an Industry Field Trip, 30%. Examination, Final Examination, 50%.

BCO1046 COMPUTER SYSTEMS

Locations: Footscray Park, Other.

Prerequisites: BCO1102 - INFORMATION SYSTEMS FOR BUSINESS

Description: The unit of study provides students with the understanding of information systems development process as well as knowledge and skills needed to design, construct, test and document programs using a visual, event-driven, yet many of the fundamental concepts are still based on original architectures. While many people utilise computer systems in their day to day activities, it is essential that the IT professional has a basic understanding of these fundamental concepts and the operation of the computer system in the modern digital environment. This unit aims to give students an overview of computer systems architecture, the role and use of operating systems on different platforms, and networking topologies.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: On successful completion of this unit, students should be able to: understand the basic principles of computer architecture conceptualise the underlying representation of data within the computer identify various techniques used by different peripheral devices for operating in the computer environment understand basic hardware operation and diagnostic tools utilise various user interfaces identify and evaluate different file management systems utilised by operating systems understand the basics of data communications demonstrate a knowledge of computer systems commands.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law.

Assessment: Presentation, Prepare and participate in presentation., 10%. Project, Group or Individual, 25%. Tutorial Participation, Reflection and discussion., 5%. Test, Semester Test, 10%. Examination, Final Examination, 50%.

BCO1048  INTRODUCTION TO BUSINESS SYSTEMS DEVELOPMENT

Locations: Werribee, Other.

Prerequisites: BCO1102 - INFORMATION SYSTEMS FOR BUSINESS

Description: The unit of study aims to introduce the concept of computer based information systems; to introduce the student to a range of techniques used in the development of business systems; and to provide practical skills in the development of computer based information systems. Topics include: systems theory, SDLC, development methodologies; analysis and design techniques, types of computer-based information systems, documentation techniques, CBIS architectures, introductory project management techniques.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: The unit will provide practical skills in the development of computer based information systems. On completion of this unit, students should have an understanding of the roles and responsibilities of the stakeholders in the development of a business system.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Assignments, 40%; Final Examination, 50%; Tutorial Problems, 10%.

BCO1102  INFORMATION SYSTEMS FOR BUSINESS

Locations: Werribee, Footscray Park, City Flinders.

Prerequisites: Nil.

Description: This unit of study aims to introduce students to the fundamental concepts, issues and benefits of information systems to organisations and individuals. The unit commences by examining the characteristics of good information and how it supports sound decision making. The unit of study investigates the nature and types of information systems, their impact on business processes, and how these systems and processes contribute towards an organisations competitive advantage. Students develop skills in the management of data and information through the use of personal productivity tools. Through a range of activities in lectures and tutorials students are able to work collaboratively to research and communicate their understanding of information systems in discussions, written assignments and oral presentations.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: On successful completion of this unit, you should be able to: Analyse fundamental concepts, issues and benefits of information systems Explain the nature of data, the characteristics of good quality information and the importance of knowledge in decision making Compare the potential contribution of information systems to the competitive advantage of different organisations Apply skills in the management of data and information using personal productivity applications Work collaboratively to research, formulate and communicate understanding of information systems through written and oral business presentations.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as one and a half hours of lectures and one and a half hours of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law.

Assessment: Other, Online Assessment Task, 10%. Test, Test, 10%. Assignment, Assignment, 30%. Examination, Final Examination, 50%.

BCO1103  WEB ENABLED BUSINESS SYSTEMS

Locations: Footscray Park.

Prerequisites: BCO1102 - INFORMATION SYSTEMS FOR BUSINESS

Description: This unit of study will introduce the place of IT in business and provide an overview to the four major areas, infrastructure, transactions systems, strategic systems and informational systems. It will provide an insight into the use and management of information for web-enabled businesses. It will examine issues surrounding the design, management and use of information technology interfaces that enable both internal and global communications and interaction.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Final examination, 60%; Tutorial assignments, class presentations, project, 40%.

BCO1147  INTRODUCTION TO PROGRAMMING CONCEPTS

Locations: Werribee, Footscray Park, Other.

Prerequisites: BCO1102 Information Systems for Business.

Description: The unit of study provides students with the knowledge and skills needed to design, construct, test and document programs using a visual, event-driven, programming environment. Topics covered include: problem solving methodology - defining the problem, designing a solution, implementing the solution; algorithm design - pseudo-code, program control structures, modularisation, parameter passing; components of a program - data types, variables, constants, operators, expressions, statements; program construction - creating the screens, coding, testing and debugging; and program documentation.
Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: On completion of this subject, students should be able to:
- apply a methodology to design and construct a solution to a programming problem;
- demonstrate skills in using a programming language; apply suitable testing strategies and plans to ensure that the solution and program are correct; provide documentation for the program that is appropriate for each type of user.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as 1.5 hours of lectures and 1.5 hours of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery made as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Required Reading: There is no required text. List of recommended resources will be provided by the unit coordinator at the beginning of the semester.

Assessment: Examination, Final examination, 50%. Assignment, Several tasks based on a case study (may be split into several submissions), 35%. Test, Short test covering main concepts, 15%.

BCO2040 MANAGING THE COMPUTING ENVIRONMENT

Locations: Werribee, Other.

Prerequisites: BCO1042 - INFORMATION SYSTEMS FOR BUSINESS

Description: This unit of study aims to provide students with the skills necessary to plan the purchase of new/replacement equipment, cater for change in computer hardware and software, determine organisational standards, plan strategic changes, monitor system performance, prioritise system developments, and allocate resources effectively. Topics include: models of information systems maturity; roles in the computing environment; information technology department structures, stakeholders in information technology, role of an IS manager; ITIL service delivery and support; financial management for IT services; strategies for selection, recommendation and purchasing of hardware and software; paying for information technology; strategic planning and budgeting; introduction of new technology: user resistance, strategies for change management; planning installation of computing equipment; configuration management, availability management, capacity management; supporting users: types of support; managing and running a help desk, incident and problem management; peer support; information technology steering committees; training issues: types of training, planning training programs for users and support staff; selection of staff; security issues and threats to the computing environment; managing user’s access and privileges; auditing the computing systems; managing use and abuse of corporate computing facilities, such as email and internet use.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Required Reading: To be advised by lecturer.

Assessment: Assignments, 40%; Tutorial exercises and participation, 10%; Examination, 50%.

BCO2041 SYSTEMS ANALYSIS AND DESIGN

Locations: Werribee, Other.

Prerequisites: BCO1048 - INTRODUCTION TO BUSINESS SYSTEMS DEVELOPMENT

Description: This unit of study will aim to provide students with methods to formalise all aspects of systems analysis and design processes. It will develop student’s abilities to apply tools and techniques that are currently used in systems development, building upon the skills and concepts learned in Introduction to Business Systems Development. Students will learn to identify the full range of client needs including such needs as quality, usability, cost and time constraints.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: On successful completion of this unit, students should be able to:
- to roles of systems analysts and designers describe systems development life cycle and various system development methodologies demonstrate the ability of planning and problem definition in information systems develop practical skills and competencies necessary to undertake a requirements analysis for a business application demonstrate the ability to model and design logical and physical systems using both structured and object oriented techniques demonstrate the ability to apply systems analysis and design skills to develop computer based information systems design appropriate input, output, processing and storage to meet the needs of the application being developed.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Assignment, Assignments, 40%. Examination, Examination, 60%.

BCO2042 DATABASE APPLICATIONS

Locations: Werribee, Other.

Prerequisites: BCO1041 - INTRODUCTION TO PROGRAMMING

Description: This unit of study will provide students with the knowledge and skills needed to fully develop an application that uses an industry standard database management package. Topics include: steps in application development, defining an application, designing a solution, creating the data model, features of the language, coding of modules, testing, and documentation.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Required Reading: To be advised by lecturer.

Assessment: Project proposal, 15%; Completed project, 70%; Assignments, 15%.

BCO2043 MANAGING NETWORK INTEGRATION

Locations: Werribee, Other.

Prerequisites: BCO1046 - COMPUTER SYSTEMS

Description: This unit of study aims to build on a student’s understanding of network architectures and their relationship to a business organisation’s communication needs. At the end of the unit of study a student should be able to make decisions and recommend solutions for an organisations communication requirements. Topics include: the need for network communications for a business organisation from a strategic point of view; survey of currently available LAN products; survey of currently available WAN services; network Standards-ISO, TCP/IP, SNA, OSI; integrating LANs with each other-standards and protocols; integrating LANs and WANs-standards and protocols; network design principles; network management principles; managing the implications on business practices of the Internet; future trends in networking.
Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules as a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Assignments, 20%; Examination, 50%; Test, 30%.

BCO2044 COMPUTING PRACTICE

Locations: Werribee.

Prerequisites: BCO2040 - MANAGING THE COMPUTING ENVIRONMENT
BCO2043 - MANAGING NETWORK INTEGRATION

Description: This unit of study seeks to create a learning environment blending theory and practice which nurture and encourage the student’s capacity to develop and consolidate: ideas and concepts; professional skills; identification of potential job options; an understanding of his or her ultimate contributions to the field of computer system support; and contacts in the field.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules as a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Required Reading: To be Advised.

Assessment: Class Presentation, 20%; Supervisor Appraisal, 10%; Major Assignment, 60%; Resume/Seminar Participation, 10%.

BCO2045 BUSINESS PROCESS MODELLING

Locations: Footscray Park.

Prerequisites: BCO1102 - INFORMATION SYSTEMS FOR BUSINESS

Description: The aim of this unit of study is to become familiar with fundamental business processes and the business context. Students will be introduced to a process view of organisations and the use of modelling techniques to describe these processes. In particular, students will examine Sales and Distribution, Procurement, and Manufacturing Management and how these processes interact. Students will be exposed to industry standard information systems and products used to support these processes. During the study of these processes, students will examine the roles of the different players, the data and forms used in the processes, and the flow of activities in completing the processes.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: On completion of this unit students will be able to: Describe the fundamental business processes including Sales and Distribution, Procurement, and Manufacturing Management; Produce the necessary systems documentation for a business process; Design views of data for different process users; Describe the data used for input and output, screens, forms and reports; Identify different process users and formally describe their information needs; Identify the underlying processes in a business system; Identify the underlying processes supported by information systems; Apply industry standard modelling standards including EPCs, BPMN, UML.

Class Contact: 2 hours lecture 1 hour laboratory work.

Required Reading: Readings and resources that reflect current theory and practice in business process modelling will be complied by the unit co-ordinator and made available via Blackboard

Assessment: 100% project work. Four assignments to be weighted by content. Group work will be included within parts of their assignment work. Minimum of 50% of assessment will be learning in LiWC. Assignment, Modelling assignment, 10%; Assignment, User Study, 20%; Assignment, Business Process Analysis assignment, 30%; Assignment, Business Process Modelling assignment, 40%.

BCO2046 BUSINESS PROCESS INTEGRATION

Locations: Footscray Park, Other.

Prerequisites: BCO2045 - BUSINESS PROCESS MODELLING

Description: The unit of study investigates the problems faced by organisations in supporting multiple business processes from both an IT and business perspective. Students will examine these processes in integrated environments such as SAP and separate applications. Students will study the basic components of these systems (master data, organisational units, rules, transactions, documents, applications). Students will also study the management of processes including monitoring and process improvement. Issues relating to the technical integration of business processes will also be examined.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: On completion of this unit, students should be able to: define and describe the components of a business process (master data, organisational units, rules, transactions, documents, applications) using formal modelling techniques; describe essential sales and distribution, Financial, Manufacturing and planning, Human resources) and how they interact with one another; map the components of a business process to transactions in an application product; identify appropriate metrics for assessing processes; develop strategies for monitoring and improving processes; identify different types of middle ware used to integrate applications; map a simple data set between 2 applications; provide a physical and logical description of data; discuss approaches to integrating processes across applications; identify and describe appropriate standards that apply to communications between applications.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as 1.5 hours of lectures and 1.5 hours of tutorials.

Required Reading: In order to ensure students are exposed to current thinking in this domain, and to allow flexibility in the mix of relevant theory and industry practice, a set of readings will be compiled by the unit co-ordinator and distributed via Blackboard.

Assessment: Project, Major Project, 100%. Depending on the Unit coordinator, four assignments weighted by content in each assignment. Group work will be included within parts of their assignment work.

BCO2047 DATABASE SYSTEMS MANAGEMENT

Locations: Werribee, Footscray Park, Other.

Prerequisites: BCO1102 - INFORMATION SYSTEMS FOR BUSINESS

Description: Functions of a database management system; database management system models; data retrieval in relational database management system using SQL; database design incorporating normalisation, entity relationship modelling; database administration; distributed databases; data warehousing; database security. Backend processing for applications and data storage and maintenance processes. Archiving and the study of workflow. Students may have the opportunity to gain Industry certifications in software packages such as MS SQLServer and Oracle.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: At the conclusion of this subject, students should be able to: Understand the database requirements within an enterprise Structure the data within the system to reduce redundancy Develop a database for any given enterprise using a modern Relational DBMS Use SQL within a RDBMS Provide backend processing for applications Understand different data storage and maintenance processes.
Class Contact: Normally to be delivered as 1.5 hours of lectures and 1.5 hours of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law.

Required Reading: Fundamentals of Database Management Systems Gillenson, M., 2005 John Wiley and Sons, USA.

Assessment: Assignment, Case Study Assignment, 50%. Examination, Final Examination, 50%.

BCO2148  SYSTEMS ANALYSIS

Locations: Footscray Park.

Prerequisites: BCO1102 - INFORMATION SYSTEMS FOR BUSINESS

Description: The aims of this unit of study are to provide students with: knowledge of the fundamental requirements to build information systems, the ability to apply current techniques and tools that are used to identify and document business system requirements in accordance with user needs; an awareness of the purpose and content of relevant documentation such as systems proposals and feasibility studies; and an understanding of the roles and responsibilities of the stakeholders involved in the development of business systems. Topics include: Systems Development Frameworks And The Systems Development Process; Methodologies; A Comparison Of Methodologies; Management Decision Making And Information Requirements; Nature and Types Of Information Systems; Nature, Purpose And Types Of Models; Process And Information Modelling; Structured Analysis.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: On successful completion of this unit, students should be able to: Define, compare, and contrast alternative methodologies used in developing information systems; Produce the necessary systems documentation at each point in the analysis of an information system, and to do so with clarity and completeness; Analyse a business need for information. Develop a plan needed for the investigation of user requirements; Efficiently develop and explain various system description documents, including data flow diagrams, entity relationship diagrams, event lists, process and data specifications (including data dictionaries); and Effectively communicate systems specifications in written form.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Final Examination and Tests, 60%; Assignments, 40%.

BCO2149  DATABASE SYSTEMS

Locations: Werribee, Footscray Park, Other.

Prerequisites: BCO1102 - INFORMATION SYSTEMS FOR BUSINESS

Description: Functions of a database management system; database management system models; data retrieval in relational database management system using SQL; database design incorporating normalisation, entity relationship modelling; database administration; distributed databases; data warehousing; database security.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as 1.5 hours of lectures and 1.5 hours of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Tests and Assignments, 50%; Examination, 50%.

BCO2444  STRATEGIC INFORMATION SYSTEMS

Locations: Werribee, Footscray Park.

Prerequisites: BCO1103 - WEB ENABLED BUSINESS SYSTEMS

Description: Information Systems have always been used for cost savings and more recently for adding value to products and services. These days, businesses are looking to achieve more from their use of information technology (IT). IT is being used as the cornerstone for businesses to expand; to inform alliances with suppliers, customers and even competitors; and to assist in discovering innovative ways in which to deliver their goods. This unit of study will introduce students to the basic theory of using IT for added value, and will explore using IT for the other strategic purposes of growth, innovation and alliance. It will also explore recent popular strategic IS applications.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: On successful completion of this unit a student will: Understand the meaning if strategy and the processes of strategy formulation and implementation; Understand the importance of, and how, IS/IT strategy is to be aligned with business strategy. Competently use business strategy tools that include PEST, SWOT, the Boston Matrix and similar matrices, competitive forces model, CSFs, BS and value change analysis; and Understand the nature and importance of business re-engineering and how the internet can be used for competitive advantage.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Final examination, 60%; Tutorial assignments, class presentations, written papers, 40%.

BCO2500  ELECTRONIC COMMERCE TECHNOLOGIES

Locations: Werribee, Footscray Park, Other.

Prerequisites: BCO1102 - INFORMATION SYSTEMS FOR BUSINESS

Description: This unit of study aims to prepare students to take an active role in the planning, implementation and maintenance of electronic commerce based hardware and systems software. Topics include: basic data communications concepts; basic transports and hardware; internet protocols used in electronic commerce; cryptography and security technologies; location technologies; information retrieval technologies; world wide web technologies; world wide web application tools; setting up a web server.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Research Assignment, 30%; Test, 20%; Examination, 50%.

BCO2501  ELECTRONIC COMMERCE BUSINESS INTERFACES

Locations: Werribee, Footscray Park, Other.

Prerequisites: BCO1102 - INFORMATION SYSTEMS FOR BUSINESS

Description: The unit of study aims to prepare students to take an active role in the planning, preparation and maintenance of electronic commerce data transfer systems for use between businesses, organisations and other bodies. Topics include: business models underlying electronic commerce applications; organisational applications:
overview of electronic commerce applications in the business and government;
consumer-business, business-business and intra-organisational electronic commerce;
electronic commerce interfaces in the supply chain; implementing EDI and other B2B approaches; electronic transaction models; methods to evaluate success through traffic analysis metrics and other techniques; analysis and design of EC systems; development tools and templates.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Required Reading: To be advised by lecturer.

Assessment: Research assignments (approx 3000 words), 30%; Tutorial exercises, 10%; Tests, 10%; Examination, 50%.

BCO2502 DEVELOPING ELECTRONIC COMMERCE SYSTEMS

Locations: Werribee, Footscray Park, Other.

Prerequisites: BCO1041 or BCO1147 Introduction to Programming Concepts,
BCO2149 Database Systems, BCO2500 Electronic Commerce Technologies,
BCO2501 Electronic Commerce Business Interfaces.

Description: The unit of study will introduce to the students effective designs and structures for documents required for the transmission and retrieval of information for conducting business electronically. It also aims to provide knowledge of various programming and/or scripting languages for developing, installing, maintaining and testing web pages and electronic documents that incorporate text, graphic images, video and audio. Topics include: the concepts of good and bad web page design, 基本HTML, creating links, text formatting, creating tables and forms, client-side and server-side programming, distributed computing, developing dynamic websites with database back-end support.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: Understanding Internet technology Understanding concepts of distributed computing Understanding security issues associated with e-commerce websites Developing client-side scripting skills Developing server-side programming skills using popular programming technologies supporting database connectivity.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as 1.5 hours of lectures and 1.5 hours of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Required Reading: Lemay, L., 1996, Web Publishing with HTML, Sams.net
Publishing, USA.

Assessment: Two assignments 40%; Practical work in class 10%; Examination 50%; Examination, End-of-semester exam, 50%. Assignment, Website back-end design, 20%. Assignment, Web site front-end design, 20%. Tutorial Participation, Demonstration of completed practical tasks, 10%.

BCO2503 TRANSPORTATION INFORMATION SYSTEMS

Locations: Werribee.

Prerequisites: BCO1102 - INFORMATION SYSTEMS FOR BUSINESS

Description: This unit of study aims to give students an appreciation of Enterprise Resource Planning Systems and the role these systems play in supporting an organisation’s information needs, focusing on the extended supply chain. Issues associated with selection implementation and administering these types of systems will be covered. Topics include: types of information systems implemented within organisations; the strengths and weaknesses of current information systems;
Enterprise Resource Planning Systems; the role of Enterprise Resource Planning
Systems in supporting business processes and extended supply chain; the role of Enterprise Resource Planning Systems in supporting the transportation chain; the selection and implementation of Enterprise Resource Planning Systems; future trends including the role of Electronic Commerce in transportation and distribution.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Required Reading: Loginsky, S., 1998, Enterprise Wide Software Solutions,

Assessment: Assignment and Case Studies, 50%; Final examination, 50%.

BCO3001 MANAGING IT SERVICE SUPPORT

Locations: Werribee, Footscray Park, Other.

Prerequisites: BCO1102 - INFORMATION SYSTEMS FOR BUSINESS

Description: The following topics will be covered: Help Desk Concepts: CCM models and theory; Help Desk Operations; Help Desk Roles and Responsibilities; Help Desk
Processes and Procedures; Help Desk Tools and Technologies; Performance Measures;
IT Client Support and Management as a Profession; ITIL Service Support processes:
service desk, incident, problem, change, release and configuration management. BS
12000 IT Service Management standard and ITIL.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: On successful completion of this unit, students should be:
able to place the operational and management processes in context; be able to analyse the operation of an service/help desk; be able to organise and effectively manage a service/help desk; be able to apply ITIL guidelines for the management of an IT service/help desk; and have gained a greater understanding of the role and responsibilities of the Service Desk Manager.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Required Reading: Knopp, O., 2003, A guide to help desk concepts, 2nd Edition, Course Technology, Canada.

Assessment: Assignments, 40%; Tutorial exercises and participation, 10%;
Examination, 50%.

BCO3040 MANAGING SYSTEMS DEVELOPMENT

Locations: Werribee, Other.

Prerequisites: BCO2041 - SYSTEMS ANALYSIS AND DESIGN
BCO2148 - SYSTEMS ANALYSIS
BCO3144 - SYSTEMS DESIGN

Description: The unit of study aims to provide students with an understanding of project management issues associated with the development of IT systems. This includes Project identification and selection, Project Planning, Project Monitoring and Control, and Project Termination. Topics include: Strategic IT systems and the alignment with business goals, the identification of project phases and task, estimation techniques, resource allocation, tendering processes, project quality, risk assessment, version control, project change management and communication.

Credit Points: 12
Learning Outcomes: On successful completion of this unit, students should be able to: Recognise the problems associated with the management of IT projects; Describe the measures that can be undertaken to reduce the risks of an IT project failing; Use a range of computer-based project management tools; and Develop estimations of project costs and assess the risk involved.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Assignment, 50%; Case Study, 30%; Presentation, 20%.

BCO3042 CONTEMPORARY DEVELOPMENTS IN INFORMATION SYSTEMS

Locations: Werribee, Werribee, Other.

Prerequisites: Nil.

Description: This unit of study will explore new and emerging technologies and processes, which are emerging. Topics will be of current concern within the information systems community with special attention to those topics relevant to graduating students. Site visits and guest speakers could be used in the delivery of this unit of study. Indicative of the sort of topics to be considered are: new operating environments, new methodologies, Business Process Re-engineering, GIS, legacy systems, and the electronic commerce. The unit of study matter is to be determined on a year by year basis by the School in consultation with relevant industry advisory panels.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Required Reading: To be advised by Lecturer.

Assessment: Approximately 5000 words in two assignments, 100%. An oral presentation for each assignment is required. Class participation and attendance is required.

BCO3043 DATABASE DEVELOPMENT FOR BUSINESS

Locations: Werribee, Footscray Park.

Prerequisites: BCO2149 - DATABASE SYSTEMS

Description: This unit of study aims to provide advanced knowledge and skills in designing and using relational database systems. Content Creation of views for security purposes; use of constraints in relational databases; database transactions including read consistency and locking rows for update; controlling access by creating user accounts, roles and privileges, advanced database administration; procedural SQL programming including cursors, exceptions, composite data types, procedures, functions and packages.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as 1.5 hours of lectures and 1.5 hours of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Assignment and tests, 40%; Final examination, 60%.

BCO3044 WEB ENABLED BUSINESS RESEARCH

Locations: Footscray Park.

Prerequisites: BCO103 - WEB ENABLED BUSINESS SYSTEMS

Description: This unit of study will provide students with the opportunity to utilise the Internet both as an information resource and as a means of performing collaborative work exercises. The unit of study aims to give students an opportunity to develop a research design, perform critical analysis and present the result of an investigation in a formal manner. Students will be required to develop a research mini-proposal to conduct a small study in a small study in a chosen theme area.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Writing exercises, Research Proposal, Presentation and other assessment tasks as deemed appropriate, 100%. Assessment will be both teamwork exercises and individual components.

BCO3047 INFORMATION SYSTEMS IMPLEMENTATION CONCEPTS

Locations: Footscray Park, Other.

Description: In this unit of study students will examine the organizational issues associated with the development, management and implementation of a new information system. Specific emphasis will be given to the development of skills and strategies of an IS professional for the introduction and implementation of a strategic information systems in an organization. Issues will include: business process redesign, version control, success factors and quality assurance, user resistance and change management issues, data transfer, testing strategies and evaluation, benefits analysis and realisation, outsourcing, off-shoring and contractual requirements, user training and user support. Particular emphasis will be given to roles of project management requirements at all stages of development and implementation.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: At the end of the unit students will be able to: Understand the importance of strategies and procedures in the development, management and implementation of a new information system. Possess an overview of the basic components of the management and implementation of an information system. Identify and evaluate current issues impacting on the development and implementation of an information system such as outsourcing and off-shoring. Understand the importance of the alignment between systems requirements and implementation identify and develop strategies for the successful implementation of a strategic information system. Understand the concepts of project management requirements in the development and implementation of an information system.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials.

Required Reading: To be advised by the lecturer.

Assessment: Exercise, Workshop and Tutorial Activities, 70%. Examination, Final Examination, 30%.
BCO3048 INFORMATION SYSTEMS GOVERNANCE AND ETHICS

Locations: Footscray Park.
Prerequisites: BCO1102 - INFORMATION SYSTEMS FOR BUSINESS
BFP2001 - PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT 2

Description: This unit of study examines the governance and ethical responsibilities of information professionals, IS ethics, corporate compliance, IT governance and regulatory requirements. The unit focuses on the skills and knowledge required for effective collecting, managing and communicating of information in supervisory, support and/or management positions, in relation to governance and ethical responsibilities.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: Describe and understand the main principles of IS Governance and Ethics. Demonstrate an understanding of the basic concepts and applications of IS Governance frameworks and standards, including familiarity with applications such as COBIT and ITIL. Understand the organisational benefits of effective IS and be able to prepare and present a business case reflecting demonstrating the benefits of IS governance in a specific organisational context. Analyse business cases by identifying key IS governance and ethical issues, and make recommendations by addressing these issues for the benefit of the organisation. Appreciate the role and responsibility of ICT professionals by evaluating ethical issues using IS professional code of ethics and codes of conduct. Analyse risk management issues with respect to social, business and ecological environments and compliance.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials.

Required Reading: There is no prescribed text for this unit of study, though an extensive list of online reading materials will be provided.

Assessment: Case Study, Case Studies on Ethics and governance, 40%. Case Study, IS governance in practice, 40%. Test, Tests, 20%.

BCO3144 SYSTEMS DESIGN

Locations: Footscray Park.

Description: Project management: PERT. Database design: logical design to physical design. Design methodologies, design techniques, design evaluation. User interface design: input/output design, prototyping, usability and usability testing. Prototyping: CASE, use software tools to develop physical user model. System security and control. Software design techniques: structured design, module specification, coupling, cohesion, transformation and transaction analysis. Quality assurance: walkthroughs, team reviews. Testing: unit integration, systems, acceptance.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: On successful completion of this unit, students should be able to: demonstrate the ability to plan for the management and implementation of a computer information system; demonstrate the knowledge and skills necessary to develop a physical design for an operational system; demonstrate the ability to apply systems analysis and design skills to develop computer-based information systems; discuss the issues involved in the design of input, output, screens, forms and reports; design appropriate input, output, processing and storage to meet the needs of the application being developed; describe security design principles; discuss quality assurance in systems development and be aware of techniques available to measure and implement it; and discuss the design of systems considering the reduction of costs and productivity improvements through the use of modern design technology.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Final examination, 50%; Assignments, 50%.

BCO3148 INTERNET PROGRAMMING FOR BUSINESS

Locations: Footscray Park.
Prerequisites: BCO1103 - WEB ENABLED BUSINESS SYSTEMS
BCO1147 - INTRODUCTION TO PROGRAMMING CONCEPTS

Description: The Web pervades just about all aspects of business, education and much of our daily lives, and this unit of study targets this exciting and revolutionary area. The Web provides a far different environment than traditional systems development, and this unit of study extends basic concepts covered in BCO1103 and develops the students' knowledge and skills in programming and data interchange within the framework of the Web environment.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Semester assignments and tests, 40%; Final examination, 60%.

BCO3149 COMPUTING PROJECT

Locations: Footscray Park.
Prerequisites: BCO3150 - SYSTEMS IMPLEMENTATION

Description: The project represents the culmination of a student's study in information systems and will normally be the last unit of study taken in the degree.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Required Reading: Current Available Textbook-Students to be advised.

Assessment: Project Deliverables, 90%; Oral presentation, 10%.

BCO3150 SYSTEMS IMPLEMENTATION

Locations: Werribee, Footscray Park, Other.
Prerequisites: BCO3144 - SYSTEMS DESIGN
BCO3149 - COMPUTING PROJECT

Description: Building on foundation knowledge and understanding of systems analysis and design approaches, this Unit introduces students to the implementation phase of the Systems Development Life Cycle (SDLC). System Implementation covers a broad range of themes including project management, computer programming, database design and development, requiring students to develop their problem solving, time management and critical thinking skills.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: On successful completion of this Unit, students should be able to: understand, define, compare, and contrast system implementation and project management concepts and methodologies; demonstrate knowledge and understanding of the human factors in systems implementation projects; establish and manage business information system projects using a project scheduling tool; design, develop and implement a database driven business information system using a programming language, transactional database and a visualisation tool; produce accurate and usable test plans and systems documentation.
Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as one and a half hours of lectures and one and a half hours of workshops, tutorials, modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law.

Required Reading: There is no prescribed text.

Assessment: Assignment, Assignment 1 - Project Initiation Document, 30%; Assignment, Assignment 2 - Systems Implementation Scenario, 15%; Assignment, Assignment 3 - Systems Implementation Scenario, 25%; Examination, Final Examination, 30%.

BCO3151 ERP SYSTEMS CONCEPTS

Locations: Footscray Park, City Flinders.

Description: This unit of study aims to extend the knowledge of introductory programming concepts and techniques by providing students with practical experience in report programming in an Enterprise Resource Planning System (ERP) environment. It will also introduce the processes that are the basis for many ERP implementations.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: On completion of this unit, students should be able to: apply a methodology to develop reporting programs within an Enterprise Resource Planning System (ERP) environment; demonstrate skills in converting design to an ERP programming language; apply suitable testing strategies and planning approaches to ensure successful ERP Implementation; understand the linkages between functional modules and processes within ERP Systems.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Examination, Final Examination, 60%. Assignment, Report Programming through SAP, 15%. Assignment, Business Processes through ERP Systems, 15%. Presentation, ERP Systems Presentation, 10%.

BCO3152 WEB SYSTEMS AND TECHNOLOGIES

Locations: Footscray Park.

Prerequisites: BCO1042 - INFORMATION SYSTEMS DEVELOPMENT

BCO3047 - INFORMATION SYSTEMS IMPLEMENTATION CONCEPTS

Description: This course describes a number of technologies that are vital for the development of internet-based applications. Topics covered include technical concepts behind the Internet, distributed systems, client-server and peer-to-peer models, web development principles, client-side and server-side programming, important security concepts.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: On completion of this subject, students should be able to: understand the potential of the Internet for business growth be familiar with different business models explore how the Internet works have a basic understanding of distributed computing understand the principles of web site design process be able to design, implement, test and debug dynamic web-based applications.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as 1.5 hours of lectures and 1.5 hours of tutorials or workshops.

Required Reading: To be advised by the lecturer.

Assessment: Examination, Final Examination, 50%. Case Study, Website development tasks, 25%. Laboratory Work, Exercises in website design, 25%.

BCO3153 SERVICES ORIENTED SYSTEMS

Locations: Footscray Park.

Prerequisites: BCO1102 - INFORMATION SYSTEMS FOR BUSINESS

BCO3048 - INFORMATION SYSTEMS GOVERNANCE AND ETHICS

Description: The subject focuses on the emerging services oriented solutions for e-business sectors. It covers the key issues of service operations, services oriented architecture, services management, and services orientated systems for e-business. The concepts and practice associated with the subject will be offered in line with the major industry vendors in the field, e.g. IBM, SAP, and TIBCO through various case studies in the lectures and tutorials. It aims to combine academic knowledge with up-to-date industry practice in the field.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: On completion of this unit, students should be able to: apply services oriented methodology to design solutions for e-business integration tasks; Understand the linkages between services oriented systems and business needs; Gain a general understanding on how integration tasks are solved in practice through leading vendors products; Use example services oriented system either through a prototype system or on a vendor's platform to solve simple integration tasks.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials.

Required Reading: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials.

Assessment: Examination, Final Examination, 60%. Assignment, Tutorial Assignments, 10%. Presentation, Class Presentations, 5%. Project, Project, 25%.

BCO3248 OPERATING SYSTEMS

Locations: Footscray Park.

Prerequisites: BCO1102 - INFORMATION SYSTEMS FOR BUSINESS

Description: The aim of this unit of study is to provide students with an understanding of operating system fundamentals and the relationship of an operating system to application software, and to compare a variety of different operating systems. Topics include: overview of operating systems; organisation and architecture; layers and interfaces; memory management; processor and process management; multiple processor systems; concurrency and synchronisation; input/output device management; and file management.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Assignments, 40%; Final Examination and Tests, 60%.

BCO3345 OBJECT ORIENTED SYSTEMS

Locations: Footscray Park.

Prerequisites: BCO1147 - INTRODUCTION TO PROGRAMMING CONCEPTS

BCO2148 - SYSTEMS ANALYSIS

Description: Object Oriented technology has become a major focus of program design and development and plays an important role in IS studies. This unit of study extends the study of basic programming principles introduced in BCO1147 and Continues the development of the student’s theoretical knowledge and practical skills

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Semester assignments, 40%; Final Examination and tests, 60%.

BCO3348 KNOWLEDGE MANAGEMENT TECHNOLOGIES

Locations: Footscray Park.

Prerequisites: BCO1103 - WEB ENABLED BUSINESS SYSTEMS

Description: Knowledge is increasingly regarded as the most important asset for organisational success and consequently, knowledge management is gaining wider recognition as an important area of study. This unit of study is designed to enable students to gain an appreciation of sources of knowledge, the underlying principles of knowledge management, and to obtain the necessary skills for knowledge to be successfully captured, maintained and used within an organization. They will not only ‘know-what’ but will also gain the ‘know-how’ to put that knowledge into practice. It will enable students to move from an appreciation of what knowledge is, to be able to form communities of practice where what is being communication is actually being used in practice.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Final examination, 50%; Tutorial assignments, class presentations, written papers, project, 50%.

BCO3350 ERP PROGRAMMING CONCEPTS

Locations: Footscray Park.

Prerequisites: BCO1147 - INTRODUCTION TO PROGRAMMING CONCEPTS

Description: This unit of study aims to extend the knowledge of introductory programming concepts and techniques by providing students with practical experience in programming in an Enterprise Resource Planning System (ERP) environment.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Required Reading: Current available textbook - Students to be advised.

Assessment: Practical assignments, 40%; Final examination, 60%.

BCO3357 DATA STRUCTURES FOR BUSINESS PROGRAMMING

Locations: Werribee, Footscray Park.

Prerequisites: BCO1147 - INTRODUCTION TO PROGRAMMING CONCEPTS

Description: Data structure techniques play an important role in the successful implementation of most IS systems. The incorrect application of such techniques can be devastating to the success of such computer systems, thus the study of Data structures is an important component of any IS course. The aim of this unit of study is to give students an appreciation and understanding of the interrelationship between data structures and efficient algorithms. This unit of study extends the basic knowledge and principles introduced in BCO1147 within the framework of an industry standard development language. Content is: Algorithm Design Designing Solutions for medium to large programs Parameter passing techniques Data Structure Paradigm. Event Models for the development environment. Balancing Graphical User Interface. Interfaces within the OO paradigm. Programming in an appropriate OO language. Object Oriented concepts. Development using the Object Oriented Paradigm. Software OO engineering principles.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Final examination, 60%; Assignments, 40%.

BCO3443 THE INFORMATION PROFESSIONAL

Locations: Footscray Park, Werribee, Other.

Prerequisites: BCO1102 - INFORMATION SYSTEMS FOR BUSINESS

BCO2040 - MANAGING THE COMPUTING ENVIRONMENT

OR

Description: This unit of study examines the diverse role of the Information Professional, focussing on the skills and knowledge required for responsible and effective collecting, managing and communicating of information in supervisory, support and/or management positions. This unit of study addresses the technical, communications and interpersonal skills required by all information professionals to work effectively and ethically in contemporary business environments. Portfolio development and Core Graduate Attributes analyses.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Required Reading: Current available textbook - Students to be Advised.

Assessment: Group work, assignments and presentations, 60%; Examination, 40%.
BCO3445 ENTERPRISE INFORMATION SYSTEMS

Locations: Werribee, Footscray Park.

Prerequisites: BCO103 - WEB ENABLED BUSINESS SYSTEMS

Description: The unit of study aims to provide students with an understanding of the nature of information systems management and planning and the purpose, methods and techniques of information requirements analysis and planning; an understanding of the importance of business processes and their relationship to information systems inside and outside the enterprise; an appreciation of the importance of business process integration and the emerging use of the Web for internal and external information sharing via intra/inter organisational information systems; an appreciation of the development of ERP systems for internal process optimisation and EAI for the integration of internal and external information systems.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Required Reading: Sandoe, K., Corbit, G. and Boykin, R., 2001, Enterprise Integration, Wiley-VCH.

Assessment: Part 1. Information Requirements Assessment with CSF’s, 15%.
Part 2. Enterprise Information Systems, Issue, 15%.
Part 3. Enabling Business Processes through ERP, 20%. Examination, 50%.

BCO4501 BUSINESS PROCESS ENGINEERING

Locations: City Flinders.

Prerequisites: Nil.

Description: The unit of study is concerned with the strategic and organisational issues of process and workflow management and the use of Enterprise Resource Planning Systems (ERPs) to realise efficient processes. Designing and implementing efficient business processes can provide important strategic advantages for businesses. This unit of study will describe the major strategic approaches used to understand, analyse, and implement efficient business processes. Workflow modelling techniques, process modelling techniques, and procedure models will be presented and practiced. SAP R/3, as an example of Enterprise Application Software, will be used to examine the issues that students are likely to encounter in identifying, reorganising and implementing processes in a typical business organisation.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Minor Assignment 1, 25%; Minor Assignment 2, 25%; Major Assignment, 50%.

BCO4603 ENTERPRISE RESOURCE PLANNING SYSTEMS

Locations: City Flinders.

Prerequisites: Nil.

Description: This unit of study investigates the use of integrated computer-based information systems, commonly referred to as Enterprise Resource Planning systems, designed to support a large organisation's information needs. This unit considers issues associated with the analysis, design and implementation of such systems and investigates how such systems implement transaction processing, management information systems and executive information systems across an organisation's various business processes.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Required Reading: To be advised by lecturer.

Assessment: 2000 word case study, 25%; 2000 word research project, 25%; System design and implementation project (practical), 50%.

BCO4641 USER COMPUTING

Locations: Footscray Park, City Flinders.

Prerequisites: Nil.

Description: Rise of user computing; development of user computing; classification of users. User environments and user needs; office and work environments. User application development; types of applications, assessment of user developed applications. Managing user computing; benefits, factors for success, concerns and fundamental decisions, casting issues, planning, budgeting, staffing, resourcing, interaction with computing professionals. Supporting users: information centres, trouble shooting, controlling user computing, prompting user computing, selection of tools, software and hardware. User training: skills hierarchy, training principles, types of training, provision of training, training issues, skills versus concepts.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Required Reading: To be advised by lecturer.

Assessment: Assignments, 75%; Presentations, 25%.
BCO4642 SYSTEMS DEVELOPMENT

Locations: City Flinders.

Prerequisites: Nil.

Description: This unit of study aims to investigate information systems and systems development in School to provide the student with a comparative framework for and knowledge of several development methodologies. The nature, purpose limitations and management of system development methods. Underlying philosophies; deterministic or evolutionary, hard systems development, soft systems development.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Required Reading: To be advised by lecturer.

Assessment: Assignments, 100%.

BCO4643 KNOWLEDGE ENGINEERING

Locations: City Flinders.

Prerequisites: Nil.

Description: The adoption of knowledge based systems in the commercial world has given rise to a number of practical issues. Among these are, improved techniques for knowledge acquisition, design, documentation, maintenance and validation of knowledge based systems. This unit of study aims to present a practical view of the knowledge acquisition process, its methodologies and techniques in order to enable its students to develop expert system knowledge bases more effectively. Basic concepts and terminology; sampling expert systems; identifying and tapping knowledge; conceptualising knowledge acquisition, knowledge acquisition modes, approaches, stages and process, impediments to effective knowledge acquisition; verification and validation procedures; documentation requirements.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Required Reading: To be advised by lecturer.

Assessment: Assignments, 100%.

BCO4644 OBJECT ORIENTED PROGRAMMING AND DESIGN

Locations: City Flinders.

Prerequisites: Nil.

Description: The aim of the unit of study is to give students an understanding of advanced aspects of object oriented programming and design. While basic topics such as inheritance, encapsulation and polymorphism are covered, these concepts are extended and additional topics such as object oriented databases are introduced.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Required Reading: To be advised by lecturer.

Assessment: Assignments, 100%.

BCO4645 INTERNETWORKING SYSTEMS

Locations: City Flinders.

Prerequisites: Nil.

Description: Data communications, fundamentals from a business perspective; networking; networking applications; local area internetworking; representative internetworked LANs; internetworking within a WAN context; internetwork with bridges; routers; gateways; WAN protocols; designing and implementing an internetworked system; internetwork management; future trends.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Presentation, 10%; Test, 40%; Assignments, 50%.

BCO4646 SYSTEMS SUPPORT PROGRAMMING

Locations: City Flinders.

Prerequisites: Please Enquire.

Description: Overview of computer organisation, operating systems and supporting software; interrupts and interrupt programming using low-level and high-level languages; application of assembler tools, Windows memory management and application development tools in C++; investigation of Dynamic Link Libraries and classes in an Object Oriented environment using appropriate compilers, library functions and Internet tools.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Required Reading: To be advised by lecturer.

Assessment: Assignments, 100%.

BCO4652 BUSINESS RESEARCH METHODS

Locations: Footscray Park, City Flinders.

Prerequisites: Nil.

Description: The purpose of the unit of study is to provide students with a firm foundation from which they can undertake a research problem. For the duration of the semester guidance will be given to students for the identification of a research problem. Instruction will be provided which will enable students to perform effective literature reviews. Students will be presented with various models of methodology and assist with designing an appropriate method for their research. Students will be trained in the analysis and presentation of results, exposition of processes and methods used and conclusions drawn. Guidelines outlining the preparation and writing of a research thesis will be provided at the conclusion of semester.
FACULTY OF BUSINESS AND LAW

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Required Reading: Management Plan for Research and Professional Practice, School of Information Systems, Victoria University of Technology.

Assessment: Assignments, 50%; proposal, 50%.

BCO4653 MANAGEMENT OF INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Locations: City Flinders.

Prerequisites: Nil.

Description: A framework for the management of information technology. Management issues may include the strategic use of information technology, information technology architectures, information systems planning, information technology investments, security and privacy and outsourcing.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: On successful completion of this unit, students will: be familiar with current research and developments in information technology management; be familiar with important management issues in managing information technology; understand the information management approach, its nature and importance; be able to apply relevant methods and techniques to better manage information resources; have applied a relevant method or part of a method to an organisation or part of an organisation and prepared a report; planned and prepared a substantial research paper on a designated topic; and have critically reviewed research papers, presented the evaluations and lead group discussions on the evaluations.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Required Reading: To be advised by lecturer.

Assessment: Assignments, 70%; Presentations, 30%.

BCO4654 DATABASE DESIGN

Locations: City Flinders.

Prerequisites: Nil.

Description: A selection of the following topics within a data warehouse development content will be examined. Advanced data modelling concepts; database design methodology; distributed database concepts; databases and parallel processing; physical design; database performance issues; CASE impact on database design.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Required Reading: To be advised by lecturer.

Assessment: Assignments, 100%.

BCO4656 INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY PROJECT MANAGEMENT

Locations: City Flinders.

Prerequisites: Nil.

Description: This unit of study aims to give computing students an appreciation of the importance of a thorough understanding of contemporary project management techniques, both technical and human. It aims to show how knowledge of the appropriate application of such skills is becoming vital to information technology professionals in the performance of their many functions in an organisation. Topics include: project management fundamentals, project management software tools, defining the problem, developing the project plan and schedule, building the project team, implementation difficulties, management of conflict, cost control, reporting on project status, project management methodologies, software engineering projects, case studies.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Assignments, 40%; Case Study, 40%; Presentations, 20%.

BCO4658 INTERNET COMMERCE

Locations: City Flinders.

Prerequisites: Nil.

Description: The unit of study will introduce students to the many facets of Internet Commerce and its business related issues. Business systems and processes have changed considerably in the face of the evolving computer and communication technologies, especially the Internet and the World Wide Web. Topics include: - an overview of internet commerce (electronic commerce); business case for internets; extranets and intranets; electronic marketplace technologies; internet commerce models; elements of a successful electronic business; electronic payment systems; security; legal, tax and ethical issues; supply and value chain management; customer relationship management; enterprise resource planning; knowledge management; E-business management issues; E-business design.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Research Assignments, 60%; Case studies, papers, electronic commerce site analysis and oral presentations, 40%.

BCO4659 EXECUTIVE AND MOBILE COMPUTING

Locations: City Flinders.

Prerequisites: Nil.

Description: The unit of study aims to introduce students to information technologies that support managerial work and decision making, particularly for the business executive away from the office and on the move, but needing to keep in touch. Topics covered will include: executive information needs, decision making and decision support systems, group support systems, executive productivity tools, keeping in touch whilst on the move, mobile executive computing, executive information systems, modelling and model management, knowledge management, integration and implementation of management support systems.

Credit Points: 12
Learning Outcomes: To be advised.
Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.
Assessment: Decision Support Systems and Executive Information Systems, 20%; Executive Mobile Computing, 20%; Class research paper presentation and summary paper, 20%; Seminar participation, 10%; Class Test, 30%.

BCO4660 ENTERPRISE ELECTRONIC COMMERCE

Locations: City Flinders.
Prerequisites: Nil.
Description: This unit of study provides students with understanding of the models and strategy development and considerations in relation to e-business. Topics include: Channel Enhancement, Customer relationship management, Value chain integration, business convergence, ERP systems and e-business, mobile computing, e-strategy, legal implications, e-business implementation.
Credit Points: 12
Learning Outcomes: To be advised.
Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.
Assessment: Minor Assignment 1, 25%; Minor Assignment 2, 25%; Major Assignment, 50%.

BCO4661 ENTERPRISE RESOURCE PLANNING SYSTEMS IMPLEMENTATION

Locations: City Flinders.
Prerequisites: BCO6603 - ENTERPRISE RESOURCE PLANNING SYSTEMS
Description: The aims of this unit of study are to provide students with an understanding of the basic methodologies, techniques and tools that are used in the implementation Enterprise Resource Planning Systems using SAP R/3 as an example. It also addresses the issues that need to be considered for successful implementation. Topics include: Project life cycle, project management, implementation strategies, Risk management, data conversion, critical success factors, project management software tools, project reporting.
Credit Points: 12
Learning Outcomes: To be advised.
Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.
Required Reading: Norbet, W., 1999, Successful SAP R/3 Implementation.
Assessment: Minor Assignment 1, 25%; Minor Assignment 2, 25%; Major Assignment, 50%.

BCO4662 SMALL BUSINESS INFORMATION AND INTERNET SYSTEMS

Locations: City Flinders.
Prerequisites: Nil.
Description: This unit of study introduces the student to a broad range of topics relating to the field of information technology and small business. Topics covered include: the role of information systems and the Internet in small business; selecting applications for small business: integrating information and Internet systems with small business processes; selecting hardware and operating systems for small business; networking for small business; building small business applications; office suite programming; integrating office and Internet applications.
Credit Points: 12
Learning Outcomes: To be advised.
Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.
Assessment: Small Business Case Study, 15%; Research paper/presentation, 20%; Development of small business system, 65%.

BCO4672 THE INFORMATION SYSTEMS PROFESSIONAL

Locations: City Flinders.
Prerequisites: Nil.
Description: This unit of study aims to provide students with an overview of the requirements and skills for responsible and ethical membership of the Information Technology profession; opportunities to develop and apply information systems, communications and management skills and competencies within a variety of professional practice scenarios. Topics include: role of IS professionals and their interactions with users of information, information handling in an electronic environment, information professions, legal, cultural and ethical issues encountered by IS professionals, information security and information overload. The nature, role and importance of Professional and Standards Organisations. Professional Competencies eg risk, analysis, feasibility study, quality assurance. Business Processes eg negotiation, procurement, tendering.
Credit Points: 12
Learning Outcomes: To be advised.
Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.
Required Reading: To be advised by the lecturer.
Assessment: Assignments and Class Presentations, 60%; Final Examination and tests, 40%.
BCO4673    USABILITY DESIGN FOR E-BUSINESS
Locations: City Flinders.
Prerequisites: Nil.
Description: The unit of study aims to address the issues of usability and consequent user satisfaction in the design of web sites and other e-business interfaces. It will introduce students to design issues relating to web and electronic commerce sites and provide guidelines on how to design and test for usability and functionality. Many of the concepts covered will apply to the general design principles for effective user interfaces for information systems. Topics include: The principles behind designing for human factors; human factors in relation to information systems; elements of an information system impacted by human factors; approaches to usability testing; how to investigate and evaluate user needs; how to determine the audience of a system; usability testing and its importance in the development of electronic business systems; constructing a usability test and interpreting the results; the place of usability testing in the development process; user-centred design approaches; how to implement and evaluate the results of a usability test; cultural and socio-economic factors in relation to the design, testing and implementation of effective user interfaces for systems; legal and ethical issues in relation to the design, testing and implementation of effective user interfaces for systems.
Credit Points: 15
Learning Outcomes: To be advised.
Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study is 24 credit points per semester.
Required Reading: To be advised by lecturer.
Assessment: Written thesis, 85%; Seminar, 15%.

BCO5501    BUSINESS PROCESS ENGINEERING
Locations: City Flinders, Off-shore, Other.
Prerequisites: Nil.
Description: The unit of study is concerned with the strategic and organisational issues of process management and the use of Enterprise Resource Planning Systems (ERPs) to realise efficient processes. Designing and implementing efficient business processes can provide important strategic advantages for businesses. This unit of study will describe the major strategic approaches' used to understand, analyse and implement efficient business processes. Workflow modelling techniques, process modelling techniques and procedure models will be presented and practiced. SAP R/3, as an example of Enterprise Application Software, will be used to examine the issues that students are likely to encounter in identifying, reorganising and implementing processes in a typical business organisation.
Credit Points: 12
Learning Outcomes: On successful completion of this unit students will be able to: identify actors and work flows in a business process; describe the changing business environment and the importance of applying Business Process Engineering concepts to respond to that environment; use Event Controlled Process Chains to describe a business process; implement a simple workflow using SAP WebFlow; design an organisational plan to support a workflow; discuss the usefulness of automated workflows for monitoring and controlling business processes; and identify the different elements of a workflow and describe their interaction.
Class Contact: Equivalent to thirty six hours per semester normally to be delivered as a combination of lecture, seminar, tutorial and or/workshop or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.
Required Reading: Extensive use of SAP R/3 and SAP Netweaver Documentation at help.sap.com.
Assessment: Assignments x 2, 50%; Assignment, 50%.

BCO5502    CLIENT SERVER TECHNOLOGY
Locations: City Flinders.
Prerequisites: Nil.
Description: Enterprise Resource Planning Systems (ERPs) are designed to run in a widely dispersed distributed computing environment. Client server computing through its multi-tiered implementation enables this type of system to perform the majority of their processing close to the resources required for that task and limits the amount of communication over the network. Proper design, implementation and maintenance of the client server solutions for ERPs are essential for success. This unit of study covers client server concepts; design and implementation and maintenance issues of this type of technology for ERPs using SAP R/3 as an example.
Credit Points: 12
Learning Outcomes: To be advised.
Class Contact: Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.
Assessment: Assignment 1, 25%; Examination, 50%; Assignment 2, 25%.
BCO5647  APPLICATIONS PROGRAMMING TECHNIQUES

Locations: City Flinders, Off-shore, Other.

Prerequisites: Nil.

Description: The aims of the unit of study is to extend the knowledge of introductory programming techniques; provide students with practical experience in programming with an emphasis on commercial applications with a business oriented language; introduce students to data structures. Topics include: key features of the programming language in use; structured tools and techniques; data manipulation; report generation; file structures; interactive processing.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to thirty six hours per semester normally to be delivered as a combination of lecture, seminar, tutorial and or/workshop or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Assignments, 40%; Exam, 60%.

BCO5650  ENTERPRISE E-COMMERCE

Locations: City Flinders.

Prerequisites: Nil.

Description: This unit of study provides students with understanding of the models and strategy development and considerations in relation to e-business. Topics include: Channel enhancement, Customer relationship management, Value chain integration, business convergence, ERP systems and e-business, mobile computing, e-strategy, legal implications, e-business implementation.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to thirty six hours per semester normally to be delivered as a combination of lecture, seminar, tutorial and or/workshop or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Minor assignment 1, 25%; Minor assignment 2, 25%; Major assignment, 50%.

BCO5651  ENTERPRISE RESOURCE PLANNING SYSTEMS IMPLEMENTATION

Locations: City Flinders, Off-shore, Other.

Description: The aims of this unit of study are to provide students with an understanding of the basic methodologies, techniques and tools that are used in the implementation Enterprise Resource Planning Systems using SAP R/3 as an example. It also addresses the issues that need to be considered for successful implementation. Topics include: ASAP Project life cycle, Implementation strategies, Change Management, Data conversion, Implementation Testing, Implementing project reporting.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: On successful completion of this unit of study students should be able to: Critically evaluate the importance of Implementation in the development of enterprise wide systems, Understand the need for linking enterprise mission & goals with the implementation of ERP systems, and Use tools to aid and understand the implementation process.

Class Contact: Equivalent to thirty six hours per semester normally to be delivered as a combination of lecture, seminar, tutorial and or/workshop or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Assignment, Project Planning for ERP, 15%, Creative Works, Implementation Training Tools, 15%, Assignment, Data Cleansing & Conversion, 15%, Presentation, Implementation Tool Application & Presentation, 45%, Test, Readiness Tests, 10%.

BCO5652  TRANSACTION PROGRAMMING TECHNIQUES

Locations: City Flinders.

Prerequisites: BCO5647 - APPLICATIONS PROGRAMMING TECHNIQUES

Description: This unit of study focuses on SAP’s 4GL development language ABAP and how it is used for transaction development and remote function calls. Topics include: Transaction processing, security issues, remote function calls, BAPI’s, record locking, user interface design, updates in the SAP R/3 system using ABAP, data dictionary maintenance and Web applications.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to thirty six hours per semester normally to be delivered as a combination of lecture, seminar, tutorial and or/workshop or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Assignments, 40%; Final Examination, 60%.

BCO5653  BUSINESS INFORMATION SYSTEMS

Locations: City Flinders.

Prerequisites: Nil.

Description: The aims of this unit of study are to provide students with an overview of the use of computer-based information systems in business. It acts as an introduction to the Graduate Diploma course and introduces students to a broad range of topics relating to the field of information systems. Theoretical issues are reinforced through laboratory work that leads to the design and implementation of small information systems. Content includes: An overview of the field of information systems; problem solving and decision making, systems analysis concepts, process modelling; database and data modelling concepts; hardware and software fundamentals; data communications and networks; identification, and roles of stake holders in information systems; business applications of information technology including: types of information systems used in business, and the use of Internet technologies in business.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to thirty six hours per semester normally to be delivered as a combination of lecture, seminar, tutorial and or/workshop or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.
BCO5654 DEVELOPMENT OF INFORMATION SYSTEMS

Locations: City Flinders.

Prerequisites: BCO5653 - BUSINESS INFORMATION SYSTEMS

Description: The aim of the unit of study is to provide students with the ability to apply systems analysis and design processes. It will develop students' abilities to apply tools and techniques that are currently used in systems development, building upon the skills and concepts learned in Business Information Systems. Students will learn to identify and document a range of client needs including business requirements, quality processes, usability needs, and cost and time constraints. A case study approach will be used in assignment to provide students with practice in the application of techniques that are used to identify and meet client needs. Topics will be drawn from: Systems Development Methodologies: model driven, rapid application, and hybrid; User Requirements Identification: object oriented analysis and design, process modelling, data modelling, and database design; Systems integration and ERP products; input/output design and usability; quality assurance and development metrics; application architecture; security and controls; system documentation.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to thirty six hours per semester normally to be delivered as a combination of lecture, seminar, tutorial and/or workshop or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Case Studies, 50%; Final examination, 50%. Students are expected to obtain at least 40% in each component of assessment as well as 50% aggregate score to gain a pass in the unit of study.

BCO5655 INFORMATION SYSTEMS APPLICATIONS DEVELOPMENT

Locations: City Flinders.

Prerequisites: BCO5501 Business Process Engineering and BCO6603 Enterprise Resource Planning Systems OR BCO5654 Development of Information Systems and BCO5656 Information Systems Programming.

Description: The aim of the unit of study is to provide students with an opportunity to apply the knowledge and skills that they have gained during their course to a real-life problem; Experience at working in a small team to successfully complete an assigned information system application within a semester; Experience in defining a problem, designing a solution and building the accepted application; Experience in presenting reports in both written and oral form; An opportunity to benefit from a real business world situation or a simulation of a real business world situation. This unit of study requires students to work as effective members of a team that is responsible for the definition, design, building and installation of a business-related information system application. The system will involve a database with at least three tables that requires a representative range of functions to be implemented or an appropriate ERP application.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to thirty six hours per semester normally to be delivered as a combination of lecture, seminar, tutorial and/or workshop or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Required Reading: To be advised by the lecturer.

Assessment: Internal assessment comprising a combination of working system submission, oral presentations, written reports and/or demonstrations, 100%.

BCO5656 INFORMATION SYSTEMS PROGRAMMING

Locations: City Flinders.

Prerequisites: Nil.

Description: The unit of study aims to provide students with an understanding of algorithm design and structured program design within an event-driven/object oriented environment. It aims to provide students with a basic knowledge of programming as a method for solving business-related information systems problems. Topics include: program components such as objects and modules; algorithm design using pseudocode and controls structures; programming concepts such as data types, variables and constants; program development, testing and debugging techniques; accessing databases using queries, SQL, record sets and access methods; program documentation.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to thirty six hours per semester normally to be delivered as a combination of lecture, seminar, tutorial and/or workshop or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Assignment 1, 15%; Assignment 2, 35%; Assignment 3, 50%. Students will be tested on the theory and skills associated with assignments.

BCO6006 INFORMATION SYSTEMS AND CRIMINAL JUSTICE

Locations: City Flinders, City Queen.

Prerequisites: Nil.

Description: The unit of study will deal with the changing face of information, sorting and retrieving information, information and computer-based systems, decision support systems, intelligent support systems, e-commerce, criminal justice information (robbery and the FLINTS systems), financial fraud detection (the POIROT system), forensic accounting, computer crime and financial regulation.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to thirty six hours per semester normally to be delivered as a combination of lecture, seminar, tutorial and/or workshop or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: One Practical assignment (2500 words), 50%; One three-hour examination, 50%.
BCO6179 ENTERPRISE PROJECT SYSTEMS

Locations: City Flinders.

Prerequisites: BCO6603 - ENTERPRISE RESOURCE PLANNING SYSTEMS

Description: This unit of study aims to give ERP and Information Systems students an understanding of Project Management as part of ERP systems and how the Project Management component enables users to manage the business aspects and content of a project with the components own functions and with integration with other components of these systems. It will also teach students the skills required to define, configure, plan and track different types of projects. Topics include: overview of project management, project management fundamentals, SAP R/3 project system, project structures, project planning, logistics interface, accounting interface, human resources interface, budgeting, project execution, period end closing, reporting and interfaces to MS project.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to thirty six hours per semester normally to be delivered as a combination of lecture, seminar, tutorial and or/workshop or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Internal assessment comprising of assignments, class tests, oral presentations and/or demonstrations, 100%.

BCO6180 ERP SYSTEMS ADMINISTRATION

Locations: City Flinders.

Prerequisites: BCO5502 - CLIENT SERVER TECHNOLOGY
BCO6603 - ENTERPRISE RESOURCE PLANNING SYSTEMS

Description: This unit of study aims to give ERP and Information Systems students an advanced treatment of client server theories and models, and enhance their knowledge of systems administration of ERP systems. The unit of study will examine the major system areas, their function in business, and explore these in a systematic manner, these areas include the Transport Systems, Database Systems and Operating Systems. Topics include: ERP systems configuration; distributed architectures; multiTier client server solutions; ERP tools; performance monitoring; load balancing; system landscapes; memory management for ERP systems; advanced security concepts; remote operations; background processing; and database platforms comparison.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to thirty six hours per semester normally to be delivered as a combination of lecture, seminar, tutorial and or/workshop or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Internal assessment comprising of assignments, class tests, oral presentations and/or demonstrations, 100%.

BCO6181 ERP APPLICATIONS

Locations: City Flinders.

Prerequisites: BCO6603 - ENTERPRISE RESOURCE PLANNING SYSTEMS

Description: This unit of study enables students to gain an understanding of technologies which extend a company’s enterprise resource planning system. The unit of study covers issues associated with the implementation, use and maintenance of these second wave technologies. Technologies can include, data warehouse, advanced planner and optimiser, workflow, e-procurement and customer relationship management.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to thirty six hours per semester normally to be delivered as a combination of lecture, seminar, tutorial and or/workshop or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Internal assessment comprising of assignments, class tests, oral presentations and/or demonstrations, 100%.

BCO6183 ENTERPRISE APPLICATION INTEGRATION

Locations: City Flinders.

Prerequisites: BCO6603 - ENTERPRISE RESOURCE PLANNING SYSTEMS

Description: The need for technologies and systems integration are the fundamental requirements in the modern e-business environments where EAI technologies have unique roles. As a result, EAI technologies operate on a broad scope of modern e-business. By studying this unit of study, students will gain up-to-date knowledge about the existing and emerging EAI technologies through discussion of topics at conceptual levels as well as gaining first hand practical experience. The unit of study consists of several key components covering different aspects of the technologies, which includes: the issues in relation to deployment of large-scale distributed systems; heterogeneous applications integration; plug and play software components within enterprise environment; business connectors and selected middleware technology including XML; integration architecture; case study: a research prototype.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to thirty six hours per semester normally to be delivered as a combination of lecture, seminar, tutorial and or/workshop or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Assignments, 100%.

BCO6184 SMALL BUSINESS INFORMATION AND INTERNET SYSTEMS

Locations: City Flinders.

Prerequisites: Nil.

Description: This unit of study introduces the student to a broad range of topics relating to the field of information technology and small business. Topics include: the role of information systems and the Internet in small business; selecting applications for small business; integrating information and Internet systems with small business process; selecting hardware and operating systems for small business; networking for small business; building small business applications; office suite programming; integrating office and Internet applications.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to thirty six hours per semester normally to be delivered as a combination of lecture, seminar, tutorial and or/workshop or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.
BCO6185 EXECUTIVE AND MOBILE COMPUTING

Locations: City Flinders.

Prerequisites: Nil.

Description: The purpose of this unit of study is to introduce students to information technologies that support managerial work and decision making, particularly for the business executive away from the office and on the move, but needing to keep in touch. Topics include: executive information needs, decision making and decision support systems, group support systems, executive productivity tools, keeping in touch whilst on the move, mobile executive computing, executive information systems, modelling and model management, knowledge management, integration and implementation of management support systems.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to thirty-six hours per semester normally to be delivered as a combination of lecture, seminar, tutorial and or/workshop or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Decision Support Systems and Executive Information Systems, 20%; Executive Mobile Computing, 20%; Class research paper presentation and summary paper, 20%; Seminar participation, 10%; Class test, 30%.

BCO6503 MANAGEMENT INFORMATION SYSTEMS

Locations: City Flinders.

Prerequisites: Nil.

Description: This unit of study provides an overview of the effective management and use of information technology in business. It introduces the student to a broad range of topics relating to the field of information systems, highlighting the link between information technology and business, and the role of IT professionals in systems development. Theoretical issues are reinforced through laboratory work that leads to the design and implementation of small information systems. Students will gain an appreciation of: management information and systems, the roles of IT staff and IT users, and various information technology concepts. Topics covered will include: types of information systems and the advantages of integrated systems, problem solving and decision making, process modelling, databases and database modelling, IT project management, management of innovation and technological change, data communications, IT application development, business applications of IT, strategic applications of IT, and the use of Internet technologies in business.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

Class Contact: Equivalent to thirty-six hours per semester normally to be delivered as a combination of lecture, seminar, tutorial and or/workshop or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.

Assessment: Case Studies and practical assignments, 50%; Examination, 50%.

BCO6601 CURRENT ISSUES IN INFORMATION SYSTEMS

Locations: City Flinders.

Prerequisites: Nil.

Description: This unit of study will develop students’ knowledge base and conceptual abilities in an area of information systems. The content of the unit of study will be current issues either in information systems, or some other closely related field, which is consistent with staff expertise and availability.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: To be advised.

BGP8002 PHD RESEARCH (FULL TIME)

Locations: City Flinders.
Prerequisites: Nil.
Description: A person may be admitted to the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in Business who is recommended by the Faculty of Business and Law Research and Graduate Studies Committee providing that she/he has: a master's degree; or a four-year bachelor's degree with honours or honours degree with a superior performance (normally first class or 2A honours level or equivalent, such as a postgraduate diploma which is an extension of the discipline contained in the undergraduate qualifications) of a kind and in a discipline as determined by the Faculty of Business and Law Director of Research and Graduate Studies; or qualified for entry into the University's master by thesis program, duly enrolled and shown exceptional ability in the conduct of the first stages of the project which is clearly capable of being extended to PhD level. In such cases a master's candidate may transfer into a PhD program provided that the Committee approves a recommendation of the Faculty of Business and Law Research and Graduate Studies Committee to that effect. The proposed or continuing project must be a significant one, expected to produce an original contribution to the particular discipline, equally comparable with an original PhD proposal - not an hypothesis extended beyond a master by thesis by time and/or additional work. Proposal for redefinition of a program should not be considered before some reasonably definable point of progress of a master by thesis program has been reached; or an alternative and exceptional background together with an unqualified recommendation from the Faculty of Business and Law Research and Graduate Studies Committee which justifies special consideration by the Committee. For admission to a PhD program a student must provide evidence of a background in research methodology. Content of the unit of study is designed to provide training and education with the objective of producing a graduate with the capacity to conduct research independently at a high level of originality and quality in the field of business. Students should uncover new knowledge either by the discovery of new facts, the formulation of theories or the innovative reinterpretation of known data and established ideas. The final thesis is expected to be well-written and to reveal an independence of thought and approach, a deep knowledge of the field of study and to have made a significant original contribution to knowledge.

BE01104   MACROECONOMIC PRINCIPLES
Locations: Werribee, Footscray Park, City Flinders, Other.
Prerequisites: Nil.
Description: This unit of study aims to develop the basic macroeconomic principles applicable to the Australian economy and familiarises students with the macroeconomic environment within which Australian business operates. Topics include: the measurement of macroeconomic performance with reference to national income accounting and trade cycle analysis; the classical economic model and the Keynesian revolution; Keynesian economics and the theory of income determination; monetary influences on aggregate economic activity; inflation, unemployment; traditional demand management; the Phillips Curve revisited; incomes policies; the foreign trade sector and policies for external balance.
Credit Points: 12
Learning Outcomes: To be advised.
Class Contact: Equivalent to three hours per week. Normally to be delivered as two hours of lectures and one hour of tutorials, workshops or modules or a delivery mode as approved by the Faculty of Business and Law. Unit of study equal to 12 credit points.
Assessment: Examination, 60%; Continuous Assessment, 40%.

BE01105   ECONOMIC PRINCIPLES
Locations: Werribee, Footscray Park, City Flinders, Other.
Description: This unit of study introduces students to the fundamental principles of economics applicable to world economies and familiarises students with both the micro and macroeconomic environments within which these economies operate. This unit also aims to introduce students to the elementary economic analytical tools most often used by economists and business analysts in business decision making and economic policy development. In this unit of study students will be provided with an introduction to the nature, method and objectives of economics and to the discipline’s evolution in the historical context. It will then examine the demand for economic resources, the market economy, demand and supply theory, and production and costs with special emphasis on the applications of economic theories in business problem solving and decision making. The unit will also examine broader economic issues to gain an appreciation of the macroeconomic environment affecting all businesses in the economy. Students will be introduced to the measurement of macroeconomic performance with reference to national accounts and economic growth. Students will further consider the domestic banking system, international monetary system, free trade and protection and economic variables such as inflation and exchange rates. BEO1195  GLOBAL RETAILING

Locations: Footscray Park.

Prerequisites: Nil.

Description: With the economic growth of developing countries and the trend toward economic unification, interest in global retailing, buying and merchandising has never been greater. This unit of study focuses on the reasons and implications for retail internationalisation; growth of global retailing, forms of global retailing, and method of entry into various international markets. Topics include: the challenges faced by retailers around the world; the differences in retailing between the developed world and developing countries; the benefits and drawbacks of retailing in multinational markets. This unit of study provides a conceptual foundation for understanding how different legal, social and economic environments affect the sourcing and distribution of consumer goods and services around the world. Current retail market structures are analysed in selected countries, mixing anecdotes with important concepts from economic theory. The unit integrates fundamental economic principles with practical, decision-making principles that are required to exchange goods and services. Cultural and sub-cultural diversity, both domestic and international, are emphasized and ethical values are examined in the larger context of the place of global retailing in society.

Credit Points: 12

Learning Outcomes: On completion of this unit of study, students will become aware that if retail firms are to progressively grow and stay profitable, they would have to participate in the global environment and would be impacted by global competition, global sourcing, differing technologies and varying legislation in different countries. Students will appreciate how global retail firms structure their organisation, take advantage of business opportunities, increase revenue streams, promote and merchandise international brands in different environments and address multicultural customer profiles.

BACHELOR OF LAWS/BACHELOR OF BUSINESS

Course Code: BBLL

Campus: Footscray Park, City Flinders, City Queen.

About this course: We understand that you need to determine your own path in life, create your own degree leading to your own individual career. The Bachelor of Laws / Bachelor of Business offers you the flexibility and the professional development you need to do this. This double degree meets academic and professional requirements for graduates to be admitted to legal practice in Victoria. It also offers graduates the opportunity to develop their skill, knowledge and professional acumen across a range of business specialisations, preparing them for careers in the legal community, business and government. The Victoria Law School provides a focus on both practical and theoretical learning, both in legal profession or in other business settings. Class sizes are small and lecturers and teaching staff are approachable and available.

Course Objectives: The Bachelor of Laws /Bachelor of Business course aims to:
Produce intellectually well rounded law and business graduates who have the professional and academic skills required to work in a variety of legal and/or commercial or business settings; Provide students with a range of legal professional skills such as advocacy, ethical judgement, communication, legal research and writing, interviewing and negotiation and relevant legal professional computing and related skills; Provide specialised education and skills in core areas of law as well as in various areas of commercial law, particularly those which have a comparative dimension; Provide graduates with such other attributes and competencies as would be expected of law graduates from an Australian law school and to satisfy the academic requirements for admission to legal practice in Victoria; Produce graduates with a sound education in the principles and practice of a business specialisation by providing a comprehensive overview of relevant issues, methodologies, and techniques within the context of the Australian and/or international business environments.

Careers: Graduates of the Bachelor of Laws /Bachelor of Business meet the academic and professional requirements to be admitted to legal practice in Victoria. They also have the opportunity to begin careers in a legal capacity in a government department or agency such as Treasury or Foreign Affairs at a federal level or in state government. They may also begin a career in community legal centres supporting legal access in particular geographic locations. There is also the opportunity to begin a career in-house in a profit or not-for-profit business. This is where the flexibility of the Bachelor of Business really allows graduates to focus their career opportunities, by developing their skill, knowledge-base and professional acumen in their business specialisation of choice.

Course Duration: 5 years.

Admission Requirements Year 12: To qualify for admission into the Bachelor of Laws /Bachelor of Business, applicants must have successfully completed a course of study at Year 12 or equivalent. Year 12 Prerequisites: Units 3 and 4 - a study score of at least 35 in English (ESL) or 30 in any other English. Selection Mode: Current Year 12 applicants: ATAR and two-stage process with a middle-band of approximately 20%. Middle-band: consideration is given to performance in the full range of Year 12 studies undertaken.

Admission Requirements International: Applicants must provide evidence of proficiency in the English language: International English Language Testing System (IELTS) result with an overall score of 6.5 and no individual band score less than 6.0. Applicants must also have completed a secondary school qualification equivalent to Australia’s Year 12.

Admission Requirements Mature Age: Applicants who have not completed Year 12 but who possess appropriate educational qualifications, work or life experiences which would enable them to successfully undertake the course, will be considered for admission.

Admission Requirements VET: Not applicable.

Admission Requirements Other: Interview (some applicants only): Details will be provided by telephone and/or mail to the applicants required to attend.

COURSE STRUCTURE
The course is usually offered over five years on a full-time basis, or part-time equivalent. All undergraduate degree units of study carry a value of 12 credit points. Each student must obtain 480 credit points through academic study to graduate. Subject to Grade Point Average (GPA), students undertaking the Bachelor of Laws / Bachelor of Business may receive their award with honours. In calculating a specified grade of honours, the following points shall be attributed to Bachelor of Laws units:

- Pass = 5 points;
- Credit = 6 points;
- Distinction = 7 points; and
- High Distinction = 8 points.

In calculating the GPA, those Bachelor of Laws units successfully completed by the student will be ranked in order commencing with 8 point units and ending with 5 point units (if applicable). The aggregate of points attributed to the first two thirds of units so listed shall then be calculated and a grade point average determined (aggregated so calculated by the number of units being the first two thirds of units in the list):

- Bachelor of Laws with 2B Honours - GPA of 7 or more and a Credit grade in the unit of study Advanced Legal Research Dissertation;
- Bachelor of Laws with 2A Honours - GPA of 7 or more and a Distinction grade in the unit of study Advanced Legal Research Dissertation;

BACHELOR OF LAWS/BACHELOR OF BUSINESS (APPLIED ECONOMICS)

Course Code: BLBE

Campus: Footscray Park, City Queen.

This course is for Continuing students only.

About this course: This double degree will provide you with a broad ranging program so you can meet the academic and professional requirements in law (admission to legal practice in Victoria) and gain a solid education in applied economics.

Course Objectives: The course will provide students with a broad ranging program of study and learning aimed at satisfying academic and professional requirements in law and applied economics. The combined degree will equip graduates to obtain employment in law, business and government, in the economics sector, at the Bar and elsewhere.
Careers: The course prepares graduates to gain employment as a lawyer or other positions in the economics sector.

Course Duration: 5 years.

Admission Requirements Year 12: To qualify for admission to the course, an applicant must have successfully completed a course of study at year 12 or equivalent*. Year 12 Prerequisites: Units 3 and 4 - study score of at least 20 in English (any). Selection Mode: Current Year 12 applicants: Equivalent National Tertiary Entrance Rank (ENTER) and two-stage process with a middle-band of approximately 20%. Non-current year 12 applicants: ENTER and/or academic record*. Middle-band: consideration is given to performance in the full range of VCE studies undertaken.* Applicants who have not completed Year 12 but who possess appropriate educational qualifications, work or life experiences which would enable them to successfully undertake the course, will be considered for admission. In addition to satisfying the entry requirements for Australian resident students or demonstrating equivalence, overseas students must provide evidence of proficiency in the English language: International English Language Testing System - overall score of 6 and no individual band score less than 6.0.

Admission Requirements Other: There are no special admission requirements for this course.

COURSE STRUCTURE

The course is offered over five years on a full-time basis, or part-time equivalent. All undergraduate degrees of study carry a value of 12 credit points. Each student must obtain 480 credit points through academic study to graduate. Subject to Grade Point Average (GPA), students undertaking the Bachelor of Laws and Bachelor of Laws combined degrees may receive their award with honours. In calculating a specified grade of honours, the following points shall be attributed to Bachelor of Laws units: Pass = 5 points; Credit = 6 points; Distinction = 7 points; High Distinction = 8 points. In calculating the GPA, those Bachelor of Laws units successfully completed by the student will be ranked in order commencing with 8 point units and ending with 5 point units (if applicable). The aggregate of points attributed to the first two thirds of units so listed shall then be calculated and a grade point average determined (aggregated so calculated by the number of units being the first two thirds of units in the list). Bachelor of Laws with 2B Honours - GPA of 7.5 or more and a Credit grade in the unit of study Advanced Legal Research Dissertation; Bachelor of Laws with 2A Honours - GPA of 7 or more and a Distinction grade in the unit of study Advanced Legal Research Dissertation; Bachelor of Laws with 1st Class Honours - GPA of 7.5 or more and a Distinction or better grade in the unit of study Advanced Legal Research Dissertation. The course total of 40 Units of Study for this double degree is comprised of 20 Compulsory, 4 Elective Law Units, 6 Core, 7 Specialisation and 3 Professional Development Business Units. All units selected are subject to approval by the course coordinator.
